ULCT will be hosting a series of trainings for newly elected officials between the election and the start of the session. The Newly Elected Crash Course covers the fundamentals elected officials need to know before they arrive in city hall. While all are welcome, this training is specifically focused on newly elected officials. The curriculum will cover a welcome and introduction to ULCT, Open and Public Meetings Act (OPMA), Government Records Access and Management Act (GRAMA), budgeting 101, intro to land use, ethics, and "knowing your role" and will have plenty of time for Q&A.
