Ms. Noe stated that this is for second and final reading. She stated that the ordinance was outdated.

NEW BUSINESS

5. Fireworks Discussion

Mr. Nicholson stated that the Planning Commission recommended banning all fireworks for life safety issues except for professional events. Chief Walker stated that he agreed because the weather is changing and it is dryer. Councilman Smith asked if there would be a fine. Chief Ray stated there would be a warning first. Mr. Nicholson stated that Councilman Greer suggested this at the August meeting.

6. Memorial Dedications Discussion

Mr. Clark stated that he has received a few phone calls for dedications at the parks and trails. He stated that he needed feedback on where to draw the line. Councilman Thompson stated he had no problem with it. Councilman Kerrigan stated they could do benches at the trails and trees at the park. Mr. Clark stated that they would lose parking for Summerfest.

7. Gun Range for PD
Chief Ray stated that they are in need of a gun range. He stated that the County could use it and they could use the money received for the items that were sold in surplus. Councilman Kerrigan stated it was a good idea. Councilman Thompson asked where. Chief Ray stated behind the training grounds.
8. Discussion on 510 Gloria Circle
Ms. Noe stated that this customer was billed for sewer but does not have sewer services. She stated that the overcharges are $1388.18 for the current resident and that TCA limits action to three (3) years. Councilman Thompson stated that it should be paid back. Ms. Noe stated that it was the boards decision to pay it back or put it towards sewer installation. Ms. Kelly White, the current resident, stated that she would prefer it go towards sewer services.
9. Skyview Drive Discussion
Mr. Nicholson stated that the original plat shows the road connected to Skyview and in 2021 they did as it was planned. He stated that from a planning perspective, you want those through roads.
10. Planning and Future Growth Committee Discussion
Mr. Nicholson stated that they have received seven (7) applications and we will interview them next week at council. Councilman Kerrigan stated that the application deadline should be extended. Councilman Thompson stated they must be able to vote in the city election. Councilman Adkins asked if they would be paid. Mayor Smith stated it would be volunteer only. Ms. Noe stated that we would vote next week to extend the deadline.
