VIII. CITY REQUESTED APPEARANCES

A. Bel Aire Chamber of Commerce

Chamber President Luis Rodriguez Herrera gave a report about the Chamber and stood for questions from the Council. The Chamber's membership is currently 26 total members; there were 34 members at this time last year. They are looking at what other Chambers are doing to build membership. Most of the new members are small businesses. For the Spring Fest, the Chamber did spend more this year because costs of supplies increased. They have had to scale back their other events.

B. City Engineer Anne Stephens - Traffic Study

City Engineer Anne Stephens gave a brief report about a recent traffic study. The study looked at traffic at major intersections in Bel Aire. The results were compared to another study conducted in 2021. East-west traffic counts increased overall. North-south traffic increased by about 15 to 20 percent. This data will be useful in informing future decisions about street repairs and improvements.

IX. CITIZEN CONCERNS

David Landoll, 4743 N Krueger Street, spoke about concerns regarding the recent Council workshop discussion about golf carts. A golf course ordinance came up about 4 years ago., Mr. Landoll stated that at the recent City Council workshop, Chief Atteberry never named one hazard to people. Mr. Landoll questioned why a 4-year-old can ride a bicycle on a street and be perfectly legal, but he can't drive his golf cart.

X. REPORTS

A. Council Member Reports

Councilmember Dehn reported he was happy to see Woodlawn repairs starting this week.

Councilmember Davied commented on the Woodlawn repairs. He said it is not fun to see it torn up again, but the only way to get it done is to get it started.

Councilmember Hamburg reported on a tour of the Chisholm Creek Utility Authority (CCUA) plant that she helped arrange for a local Girl Scout troop.

B. Mayor's Report

Mayor Benage reported he attended the most recent meetings of CCUA and WAMPO. On April 6th he represented Bel Aire at a reception for the NASA Administrator Jared Isaacman. He also attended the State of the Base dinner at McConnell Airforce Base on April 7th. He thanked the Lions Club, Bel Aire Chamber of Commerce and city staff for their work at the Spring Festival.
