QUESTIONS ABOUT UPCOMING COUNCIL MEETING AGENDA ITEMS

Debra Hughes, engineer (S A M) 2810 Dexter Drive was present to review the revisions to the townhouse site plan being considered off N. River Rd. This is an owner purchased property. The four-unit buildings were removed, creating guest parking spaces in four locations, leaving 36 3-unit 3BR 2 1/2 bath buildings and SW corner added 5 parking spaces (17 new spaces in total), each unit now has two outside parking spaces, plus the garage (three in total per unit). Snow storage added behind the guest parking spaces.

Discussions included allowance of owner to rent or air b-n-b, HOA restriction on rental, storage, three-year phase out to build, addition of trees for privacy (arborvitae, evergreen), 6 ft opaque fence, entrance (request for variance to be waived)

Town Attorney Alex Bowman spoke to written commitments from Council that could be included, for example: addition of trees, upgrades to the current home, rentals-to have or not and length of time could be considered.

Council asked to have updated renderings, if possible, showing the floor plan and answer questions.
