4. Reports and discussion items:

A. Receive a report, hold a discussion and provide staff feedback regarding submissions for a Public Art Master Plan. (Staff presenter: Jen Basham, Director of Parks and Recreation)

The Citizens Public Art Committee has been working to bring forward a public art master plan. A RFQ was issued November 17, 2023 for submissions for a public art master plan. The deadline to submit was December 8, 2023. Staff reviewed submissions with the committee. There were three submissions and two that did not meet the requirements. The committee was impressed by the Designing Local submission. A discussion followed. The committee recommended that local citizens be involved in the decision making of the Public Art Master Plan by including a community member, a local artist and an art student from a local high school. Jana Jackson made a motion to recommend Designing Local to create the Public Art Master Plan. Tom Sale seconded the motion. The motion passed 3 – 0, with Camille Bransom and Katelyn Reeves being absent.

5. Committee Requests for future agenda items or reports.

Follow up with additional members for the Public Art Master Plan.

6. Adjourn: There being no further business; Chair Nancy McKenzie adjourned the meeting at 10:34 AM.
