COMMITTEE COMMENTS

Senesu inquired about the removal of both the “10-minute” and “Parklets” being allowed Downtown for specific restaurants and permit time-frame. Committee recommended removal at this time. Carothers responded.

Kudos to Deb Reidl on Parking Enforcement – job well done!

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 5:35 p.m.

Outdoor Seating

Parklet/Parkette, Street Eateries & Parking lots

Request for reimplementation

Parklets

Item 2.

Temporary seating platforms, placed flush with the curb, create an extension of the sidewalk by replacing one or two parking spaces with a small, new park.

Outdoor seating, whether in sidewalk cafes, parklets or street eateries, increases the use of a city's public space, expands business activity and can add vitality to an area.

Item 2.

Downtown Camas

Camas staff approved permits for these outdoor areas to help increase seating capacity and provide flexible operating space for downtown businesses to remain open under the set of statewide restrictions imposed in response to the spread of the COVID19 virus.

- Temporary permits were issued for one year
- As COVID continued permits were extended
- Aug 2022 Mayor Hogan rescinded permits and areas were dismantled Oct 31
- Mesa and Feast 316 requested City staff to allow reimplementatation
