Agenda ReviewChair Cheryl Twombly*Discussion Items

1. Environmental Scan and Listening project update. Bonnie Wagner

Listening project

Trust staff member B. Wagner shared that the surveys are closed, and she thanked the group for their assistance. Wagner showed the list of completion by municipality and the project timeline. She highlighted next steps to include the data party scheduled for February 23, along with other upcoming dates.

Member Pinkoson asked if the portion of Brooker mentioned in the presentation was in Alachua County.

Member King spoke to Member Pinkoson's question informing him that the information was from Acorn clinic in Alachua County.

Environmental scan

Staff member Wagner reminded the committee during the last meeting, she shared some secondary and administrative data on child wellbeing indicators as well as some county level population statistics. It is still a work in progress, and more information could be added in mental health and safety measures. There were a few suggestions in quality childcare, childcare acts, and accessibility. Wagner is looking to identify the resources in our communities. She is also looking at what are other funders are funding, other areas of alignment that we should be considering, and who are our partners.

Chair Twombly thanked Staff member Wagner for all her hard work.

Member Cornell acknowledged that the conversation happened at the county commission level before the Trust was formed. The goal was to not have the Trust funding everything. We should be able to articulate county wide what other agencies are funding so that we can utilize all resources properly.

2. Mission, Vision, Principles Alignment, and CTAC theories of change. Nikki Martin-Bynum and Vashti Rutledge

Nikki Martin-Bynum Strategic planner led the discussion on Mission, Vision, and Principles.

The mission is to fund and support a coordinated system of community services that allows all youth and their families to thrive. The vision is to facilitate equitable access and opportunities for all children and families, of Alachua County to ensure every child reaches their maximum potential.

- Question for the group that was also asked of the staff - when you envision a system of support for our children and youth in Alachua County that works effectively, what does that look like?

Group discussion

Member Snyder stated when she sees the statement, she thinks about putting children and families in the community at the center. Thinking about how supports, programs and systems warp around them.

Member Stokes stated the key is to fund and support coordinated efforts. His belief is that key to community is unity. You cannot have unity in the community without the unity.

Member King believes that communication systems are important to be effective.

Member Papa stated two words were principal - coordinated and thriving. The only way that we can have coordination is to have that communication. Working in a collaborative spirit and then for us to know that the child and the families are thriving is the follow-up and the follow-through as well. She said follow up and follow through are necessary to ensure that all are thriving.

Chair Twombly believes that cross program communication is important. Providers should know what services other providers offer; this will help us to not duplicate services.

Vashti Rutledge led the group discussion on theory of change the roadmap to how you reach your mission and vision.

- Current-Where is the Trust today and what does the mission look like in action?
- Inputs- What resources and assets are available to work towards our goals?
- Output- What are the key activities necessary reach desired outcomes? Financial resources
- Outcomes- What are the intermediate or short-term outcomes we can benchmark our progress with? What long-term outcomes are defined?
- Impact- If we are successful, what will the community look like?

Group discussion

Vashti Rutledge asked where we as an organization are and how we show up in the community.

Member Stokes believes that where we are as an organization is evolving, we are getting better we are looking to expand and grow.

Member Snyder shared examples of the output are TeensWork Alachua and the Business Leadership Institute.

ED Kiner sees the Trust as it was birthed and now, in the toddler phase. Kiner also believes that the Trust is evolving and shares the excitement of the strategic plan.

Member Papa views the Trust as a true partner - a toddler that is growing and evolving.

Strategic planner Vashti Rutledge mentioned to the group that it's incredibly humble for an organization to not say that we are grown.

Member Cornell stated changing the systems within our community to end generational poverty and give every kid a chance is key.

Trust staff Cayson believes that through community engagement and sponsorship, the Trust is evolving and building trust. Cayson has been working with communications to have pieces to communicate resources to share with the community.

ED Kiner believes that if the community understands that the Trust values them, then they will tell you who needs to be a part of the support conversation.

Member Arrington shared with the group a necessary key activity to reach desired outcomes is increased spaces for children and youth in childcare settings. Eliminating the language that "Infants are too expensive to serve" from our conversations.

Member King believes that identifying programs that target gap areas and adding them to list of CTAC support is important for the community.

Member Pinkoson stated at some point decisions will need to be made on what the priority focus will be and what we want to see improved.

Member Snyder believes that all children getting off to a healthy start is important. She further shared that her understanding is from taking a more results-based accountability framework perspective and thinking about outcomes.

Trust staff K. Goldwire stated success in the community looks like caregivers who have children with specific needs having access to resources. Resources to help them be successful as it relates to reading or comprehension, speech, or whatever they need. For her it can be identified as a source or service provided, and where barriers to access have been eliminated.

General Public Comments-none

Discussion Items

2. Purpose of the Strategic Planning Process (Marsha Kiner)

Executive Director Kiner introduced the strategic planning consultant Nicole “Nikki” Martin-Bynum to the group. Nikki introduced a member of her team Vashti Rutledge. Nikki expressed her thanks to the team for the invitation to work on the project.

3. Project Review (Kristy Goldwire)

Trust Staff DOP K. Goldwire recapped what led up to the listening project. She explained the RFP process and the voices that were included in the guiding and crafting. Goldwire noted that the steering committee is made up of more than board members. It includes staff and community members.

4. Listening Project Update (Dr. Tatia Prieto)

Dr. Prieto updated the committee on the current progress. She showed a graphic of the completed activities and discussed the upcoming events and deadlines. Dr. Prieto explained the project pivots with surveys, community meetings and focus groups. The project efforts were discussed. She asked the group for input on the final product should look like.

Discussion

Member Pinkoson asked how the parent focus groups went.

Member Cornell asked Dr. Prieto to share with the group the conversation that they had at the Praise Center. Dr. Prieto shared in a post Covid world people wanted more in person opportunities.

Executive Director Kiner thanked Dr. Prieto for being flexible and understanding when she reached out asking for changes. Dr. Snyder and Chair Twombly also expressed their thanks.

Trust staff member B. Wagner also thanked Dr. Prieto and her team for all the hard work. She also mentioned to the team that the parent and youth surveys are still live. Wagner acknowledged Member C. King’s question about the rural areas and survey completion. Member King asked specifically about if the churches had been contacted.

Dr. Prieto explained the extensive efforts to reach churches.

Member C. Stokes communicated with the group what he was working on to have survey completion in Micanopy and agreed that the rural areas need to be heard. Member Stokes shared that it is important to have the Pastor of the churches on board.

Member Cornell asked Dr. Prieto how many surveys does she believe she needs to hear from the rural areas? Dr. Prieto advised that she needs 30 quality results from each community parent and youth.

Member C. King asked about getting paper surveys to hand out at the Acorn Clinic.

N. Martin-Bynum r asked for Dr. Prieto to share with the group the zip codes and areas that were short on surveys. Dr. Prieto explained that the list that Staff member Wagner shared is accurate.

5. Environmental Scan (Bonnie Wagner)

Trust staff member B. Wagner discussed the environmental scan that she is working on for Alachua County. She is using valuable secondary data that is collected from various places including the Florida Census and Florida Charts. This data will help us to take a catalog of what our resources and assets look like in each of our municipalities that might supplement and compliment the work of the listening project. The environmental scan of Alachua County includes resources and assets, our municipalities, population statistics and child demographics. The indicators of child well-being in the areas of Health, Education, Support, and Safety were briefly discussed. The scan is not complete, and B. Wagner is hoping to receive feedback from the steering committee on how to figure out what is missing and what the group would like to see included.

Discussion led by strategic planners (Nikki Martin-Bynum and Vashti Rutledge)

Breakout Sessions

The committee broke up in smaller groups to discuss the indicators of child well-being Health, Education, Support and Safety.

Questions for each group.

- What trends do you see? Positive, negative, turbulent
- What factors could have impacted the trends? Social environmental, economical
- Which factors can CTAC impact?
- What opportunities/ challenges do you see?

Each group answered what they saw and heard from the data in front of them followed by a group discussion.

Healthy

First Trimester Prenatal Care by County

Women who see a health care provider regularly during pregnancy have healthier babies and are less likely to have pregnancy complications. Mothers with unknown prenatal care are excluded from the denominator in calculating the percentage.

Prenatal care visits provide benefits to both the mother and baby and are used to monitor the progress of a pregnancy. To achieve the greatest benefit for both the mother and baby, it is recommended that women begin PNC visits in the first trimester of pregnancy or as soon as pregnancy is suspected. Early PNC allows health care providers to identify potential problems as early as possible so they can be prevented or treated before they become serious.

Inter-Pregnancy Interval < 18 months by County

A short pregnancy interval (less than 18 months) is a risk factor for preterm birth. Women who become pregnant before folate restoration is complete have a raised risk of folate insufficiency at the time of conception and during pregnancy. Consequently, their offspring have higher risk of neural tube defects, intrauterine growth retardation, and preterm birth.

Healthy

Mother's Pre-Pregnancy Healthy Weight by County

Healthy weight is defined as body mass index of 18.5-24.9. This indicator is a count of births to mothers with a pre-pregnancy BMI of 18.5 - 24.9. Mothers with unknown pre-pregnancy BMI are excluded from the denominator in calculating the percentage.

One aspect of health is having a healthy weight. Eating healthy foods, staying active and gaining the right amount of weight during pregnancy helps optimize health for mothers and babies.

Mother's Pre-Pregnancy Weight in Obese Range by County

Obesity is defined as a body mass index (BMI) of 30 or more. This indicator is a count of births to mothers who had a pre-pregnancy BMI of 30 or more. Mothers with unknown pre-pregnancy BMI are excluded from the denominator in calculating the percentage.

Women who are overweight or obese while pregnant are more likely to have premature births, babies with birth defects like neural tube defects, or babies who are large for gestational age. These women are more likely to have complications during labor and birth, and their babies are at a higher risk of developing heart disease, diabetes, and obesity later in life.

Item 5.

Purpose of the Listening Project

Item 5.

“The CTAC Listening Project will be used by CTAC to identify and characterize ways to support all of Alachua County’s children and to determine how CTAC resources can be invested wisely to achieve collective community impact.”

Use of the Listening Project

“the overall use of the CTAC Listening Project is to:

1. Identify and focus CTAC efforts on priority issues impacting all children birth to 18 in Alachua County.
2. Make recommendations for an overarching framework and key strategies to address priority issues.
3. Make recommendations for a strategic plan for the use of CTAC funds.
4. Develop materials and processes that can be used as part of ongoing efforts by the CTAC to gather stakeholder input to inform short- and long-term CTAC strategies and investments.”

Objectives of the Listening Project

1. Ensure that CTAC's various stakeholders have meaningful input into CTAC's strategic planning.
2. Reveal findings that will allow the CTAC to develop priorities and strategies to address the identified needs and gaps while utilizing and mobilizing existing community strengths and resources.
3. Maximize the impact of CTAC resources in addressing the needs of Alachua County children.

Youth Survey Results

Four forms of the Youth Survey were developed and administered:

- ◆ Long version, English - received 163 valid responses
- ◆ Long version, Spanish - received 5 valid responses
- ◆ Short version, English - received 103 valid responses
- ◆ Short version, Spanish - received 12 valid responses

To gather as much information as possible on the electronic versions of the surveys, most survey questions were not required. Requiring respondents to answer questions can lead to survey abandonment, particularly if they encounter a question they find uncomfortable. This results in varying number of responses for each survey question. In addition, because of the number of questions included, split sampling was used in the online versions of the surveys, meaning that not every youth was asked to respond to every question. They were randomly split by the system to answer subsets of the questions.

To gather as much geographical information as possible, respondents were asked to provide their home zip code and their city of residence. In cases where the zip code did not correspond to the city, the city was used, with one exception. When the respondent indicated Alachua as the city, but a zip code that was not Alachua, the city was recoded to the city indicated by the provided zip code. In those cases, it was surmised that the respondent likely thought the request was for “county” instead of “city.” This led to the recoding of 55 responses from Alachua to some other city (predominantly Gainesville).

“No response” responses were ignored for these questions and similar subsequent questions. These questions were included in the Long and Short versions. Split sampling was used for these questions in the online version.

When the respondent indicated Alachua as the city, but a zip code that was not Alachua, the city was recoded to the city indicated by the provided zip code. In those cases, it was surmised that the respondent likely thought the request was for “county” instead of “city.” This led to the recoding of 81 responses from Alachua to some other city (predominantly Gainesville).

Many children are introduced to their first sexual encounters DURING school day or afterschool activities. A total of 187 indicated interest and provided a valid email address.

39. Is there anything else you'd like to share regarding the Children's Trust or supports/opportunities for youth and their families in Alachua County?

- ◆ A concern about Head Start/VPK in general. I think the program is wonderful and helpful and necessary. However, the times make it very difficult for working parents to enroll their children. I and my husband both work full time. We can't afford to work partial days and pick our child up in the middle of the day, so we have to pay for roll-over care. That is really difficult for us, financially. Additionally, the school has "planning days" 2x a month in the middle of the week, which isn't how it is in Alachua County Public Schools VPK- one of us being able to take a day off once or twice a month is becoming problematic, but we can't afford full day drop off care. We stay at MRLC because we love the teachers and they have wrap around care. But the planning days are tough on us.
- ◆ A member of the advocacy group.
- ◆ By focusing on churches you are excluding people with minority religions.
- ◆ Children's trust is doing a great job. I really appreciate the support to GCC which is also support for my kids and my family!
- ◆ Each small incorporated city in this county need a recreation facilities with a pool!
- ◆ Get enough teachers for pre school
- ◆ Hay muchos niños en mi comunidad que necesitan ayuda con tutoría para sus clases Más programas a través de la biblioteca para leer
- ◆ Help to provide quality education
- ◆ Hopefully, these institutions will bring better benefits to the children
- ◆ How does School Readiness obtain more funding? The wait list is seems to be over 6 or more months
- ◆ I excited to learn more about the Children Trust Fund and what they can offer my neighborhood and those in need
- ◆ I am happy to have you in the community. Partner with Alachua County Schools, Alachua County Athletics, Community Team Sports Clubs, Local Faith Based Organizations, and other local non-profits that can help you reach those most in need. Always consider the fact that parents or lack of parental is often in the way of the child receiving or having access to these resources so you may have to transport the resource to the children. Also realize that many local educators are burned out and that the educators need to be supported and educated as well too. MANY educators need lessons on diversity and inclusion especially in this small town. As active as I am as a parent there has been too many incidents of a teacher attempting to label my child or another child or not responding to needs in the classroom adequately when I know it my heart that it really boiled down to deep seated beliefs and not having the knowledge or understanding of how young people communicate. They are quick to say a kid has an attitude and writing them off without any consideration for what burden that child may have walked into the classroom carrying. A different approach solicits a different response. Respect is earned and some teachers aren't educated to know how to earn respect before demanding it.

- ◆ I am having a really hard time finding and financially accessing existing services for my son who is autistic. I am worn out and exhausted and need support for me so I can support him better. I am a single mama. There are few supports for children with disabilities and it feels like the constant run around to try to find them. Also, there are hardly any tutors for dyslexia and NONE for dysgraphia in our community. I need help and it needs to be affordable because I am a single mama.
- ◆ I am not sure of the role of the children's trust.
- ◆ I appreciate Trust's efforts towards the neighbourhood
- ◆ I love the programs my daughters are currently involved in. I participate in Healthy Families for my baby and I like how it keeps me in the know of what's going on in my community. I also like that they reassure me that I am doing good for my baby. My older daughter is a part of BBBS and it's good for her to have another person outside our family to go to for support.
- ◆ I think it's great when you're doing wonderful things to help the community 🙏
- ◆ I think they are doing a great job
- ◆ I want all families to have access to the things they need
- ◆ I want to get it as soon as possible. This is a good help children's trust fund. Thank you
- ◆ I would like to see you guys out in the community more. We supported the trust but have been disappointed by the lack and quality of communication and outreach. In order for the Trust to succeed, it needs to provide services to everyone at varying levels — not just to some at high levels.
- ◆ I'd like to see more paid youth internships for high school youth in the summer and during the year, connecting students to job opportunities and providing positive experiences
- ◆ If the trust can fund tutoring for dyslexia, dyscalculia, and other LDs in schools, that would be my top priority.
- ◆ I'm really not familiar with the Children's Trust, I don't know if they help families without a legal status in the country.
- ◆ I'm very grateful for the opportunity and it's a big help for us
- ◆ Impressed with what you have been doing so far
- ◆ Improved language learning & support would be great, e.g. Spanish
- ◆ Increase the intensity of publicity.

- ◆ It would be great if you could help provide after school care for children in Southwest Gainesville.
- ◆ It would be nice to receive gas cards sometimes. Discounted or free (variety) sports programs. Maybe more transportation options. Healthier food pantry of neighborhood garden.
- ◆ It's a great thing that can help a lot
- ◆ Learning more about the program
- ◆ Love the Dolly Parton Library program! Love the circus camp that was paid for a friend of ours to attend - she loves it! What a great resource you are!
- ◆ More help for single moms with special needs children
- ◆ more, easy to access reporting on where the Children's Trust funds go and what the outcomes are (e..g. how many ADDITIONAL children served, fed, etc by organizations with the CT monies; what have the improvements in grades, literacy, enrollment in after school programs been, etc.)
- ◆ no se que es children trust
- ◆ Not even sure what you have done
- ◆ Not sure if this is something this program would assist with, but we have a hard time getting reliable transportation for our kids to and from school. Often the bus isn't available or doesn't show up. I currently only have one bus rider, but next year may have 3 and I'm concerned about reliability and room on the bus.
- ◆ Our school needs more funding, not just for books but for the safety of our kids..like helmets for football...
- ◆ Over the summer both of my children with 504's participated for a limited time at Camp Cuscowilla in the day camp. I understand the 504 and IEP are for classroom accommodations and do not necessarily apply to summer camps. However, many of the minor camp attendees were participating on a scholarship from the Children's Trust due to their IEP and 504 which implies they have some sort of disability. I was disappointed to learn that none of the adults overseeing the camp had any experience in interacting with or managing children with needs. I ended up pulling my children out of the summer program for multiple reasons, but several of my reasons boiled down to the fact that the camp counselors overseeing my boys didn't know how to or have the patience to manage a child with ADHD. I feel that if they did have an adult that better understood how to redirect them or put them in situations that weren't overstimulating my boys could have thrived and had an amazing experience. My recommendation would be to utilize the funds to hire more experienced camp directors and counselors.
- ◆ Please also focus on literacy for all our kids. It is the focus faction for our kids and it is deplorable in Alachua County!!
- ◆ Please consider weekly transport services to Ironwood for Junior Gator Golf. Offer scholarships to elementary and middle students in East Gainesville. Focus on vocational programs for guaranteed professional incomes!!!!!!!!!!
- ◆ Special needs families are struggling a lot in this city. Accessibility to tutoring and child care is almost non existent. Medical bills and travel bills are high and these items are not taken into consideration for us. Some don't qualify for wic or any other form of assistance but spend the majority of our income on therapies and specialists.

- ◆ Thank you for supporting the Gainesville Circus Center afterschool program! Three out of our four kids attend their own scholarship and love it!!
- ◆ Thank you for what you have been doing and all future support.
- ◆ Thank you for your help.
- ◆ THANK YOU!!! We come from a different Florida county and never would've had these opportunities somewhere else. The kids have experienced and learned so much. We deeply appreciate both the trust and all the child care programs that chose to be involved!!
- ◆ Thanks for supporting the Gainesville Circus center. My daughter really enjoys being active after school and it's gotten me and my older daughter to join and stay active.
- ◆ thanks for your support to families and helping children
- ◆ That the are doing a good job
- ◆ The children trust is really needed and important in our society today.
- ◆ The hope is to provide more help for the physical and mental development of teenagers, and to provide employment direction for young people who graduate or drop out of school
- ◆ The school system mostly frustrates me because they are inconsistent, they can't even get my name correct on his IEP. I really don't think they are doing anything with him at school. Also, the bus is so inconsistent and they can't even text me if the bus is 40 minutes late. The staff at the Alachua County Transportation department are rude and don't understand that my 17 year old needs supervision at ALL times. They could really use some customer service training. There is little or no communication between his school and the transportation department. They act like they work separately.
- ◆ They are doing a great job.
- ◆ They do an incredible job.
- ◆ This is a waste of tax money. People shouldn't have children that they cannot afford and if they do the children should not be in the care of parents who cannot be responsible for them, afford them, and/or properly parent them
- ◆ Was great to learn a lot
- ◆ We hope that there will be no racial or regional discrimination and that we will help families with children in real need
- ◆ We need to deal with security, night life in our town and improve our services
- ◆ We need to make sure all the teachers and staff in the school district are trained to deal with behavioral issues caused by students with mental health problems and/or invisible disabilities. The highly punitive paradigm currently employed in most school systems is highly ineffective, and there are alternative evidence-based approaches that have been proven effective at dealing with these children.
- ◆ What is its mission statement?
- ◆ While it doesn't impact my kids now. I strongly believe in apprenticeship programming with stipends for teens. Afterschool matters in Chicago being one model
- ◆ Why you never reach out to the caregiver on resources for the kids that we take end to give extra support
- ◆ You are doing a recommendable job that benefit children in Alachua County

- ◆ Youth and families in Alachua county need help with mental health services, community services, transportation and clothing banks.

This parent was such a wonderful asset last summer that she will be our new paid master instructor for next summer. We have other family members of our young artists who offer similar gifts. - ◆ We offer a full day art summer program filled with lots of engaging activities. We would like to incorporate a daily healthy body and mind moment. Yoga, meditation, and healthy food would be a great addition to our program. We would also like any classes that could guide our staff and volunteers to better promote positive behavior and redirection of children who get a little over active at the end of the day. Not that we need that often because our young artists are very well behaved and kind. We love the services you have provided us! We love Children's Trust Alachua County!!!

9. How could the Trust better facilitate coordination between providers? (rank) (68 providers responded to this question)

10. Do you have any additional suggestions for how the Trust could better facilitate coordination between providers? (21 providers responded to this question)

- ◆ Share with all the providers what each organization has to offer. Highlight a provider each month. Do interviews with providers or videos. Since Covid it feels like we are not as connected as before since we don't see each other at meetings as often. Host in-person events.
- ◆ Meeting in each other school.
- ◆ I found this event tonight to be wonderful. Great to make connections.
- ◆ better communication with directors and different opportunities for staff
- ◆ Partner with some of the providers and allow them the opportunity to share success stories. The Trust may already be highlighting some of the success stories current providers are realizing.
- ◆ Meet and Greets are fabulous.
- ◆ Be great listeners and supporters of the providers
- ◆ Host events where we can share what we are doing and services that we offer. Not on the same day where it is a long drawn-out meeting, but one event can highlight providers who focus on STEM Education, another day can be sports and character development, another day on early childhood or literacy. We can join based on what topics are of interest to us and also share based on what our organization specializes in.
- ◆ Encourage collaboration for strengths and weaknesses
- ◆ Transparency and better communication related to grant expectations and timely reimbursements. A nonprofit should not have to wait three months to receive reimbursement for a completed program and have additional information/documentation requested that wasn't communicated as the expectations for a grant.
- ◆ Consult with providers before planning events in regards to dates and times. Intentionally plan with the assumption that ALL team members are serving youth during program hours. Providers should include funded and not-funded organizations. Consider mentorship.
- ◆ Increased funding would allow for more staffing allowing for improved capacity with community partners
- ◆ Three of the above (meet and greets, provider summits, and provider meetings) seem to be the same thing. I think this is a good idea, but it might be more helpful to connect providers who work in the same area (education, food security, housing, etc.) as well so they can have a chance to explore collaboration and share resources.
- ◆ Monthly or quarterly 30 min zoom to update all on needs/what's going on/collaboration, etc. A shared calendar of upcoming events. For example, last year, we planned a big event at the same time another organization did and we were both serving similar demographics.
- ◆ Having a shared resource base where we can support each other in building capacity

- ◆ Look to existing groups to join forces for meetings, trainings, etc. This may help to avoid overwhelming and duplicated meetings.
- ◆ Forums to create provider connections.
- ◆ We should meet in person annually.
- ◆ Educational seminars
- ◆ Fund education seminars on mental stress and trauma and the resulting behavioral disorders
- ◆ Support for families

Envisioning a System of Supports

11. The mission of the Children’s Trust of Alachua County is to “ fund and support a coordinated system of community services that allows all youth and their families to thrive.” When you envision a system of supports for our children and youth in Alachua County that works effectively, what do you see? (57 providers responded to this question)

- ◆ A bridge between programs.
- ◆ A comprehensive, collaborative strategy for ensuring children born in Alachua County have equal access to high quality early-childcare that will prepare them for kindergarten, a public school system that has the resources and staff to provide quality, equitable K-12 education, and a robust after-school system that provides children with safe spaces to develop themselves academically whether through STEM, arts, sports, etc., so their parents/guardians can work to achieve and maintain financial stability. I believe the Children’s Trust can convene and lead the case for this strategy in collaboration with ACPS, PTAs, nonprofits, UF, SantaFe, and childcare and afterschool-care facilities. It will take everyone doing their part to see success as no one agency can do it all.
- ◆ A coordinated effort, multiple organizations working in unison operating with the same goals in mind.
- ◆ A network that includes partnerships between businesses, donors, support services, and families.
- ◆ A support system knowledgeable of the community and willing to work to improve the providers.
- ◆ A system that address the needs of the entire family, considering without a solid foundation and healthy family life, we can provide all the services we want, kids still will not thrive.
- ◆ A system that is sensitive to the underlying traumatic stressors associated with behavioral disorders
- ◆ A system that reaches out to all students and families as where they are with a target of making them better.
- ◆ A system that takes into account that most other systems are made to oppress people of color, and not only seeks to address the results of these white supremacist systems, but also seeks input from the community as to how they would like to be supported and embraces feedback and experiences from the community in addition to any quantitative feedback.

- ◆ A thoughtful process to make sure no child is left behind (educationally, mentally, physically); providers who make referrals to each other; ensuring services complement (don't compete) with each other.
- ◆ Activities and services for all the children
- ◆ All children and youth being supported in school and during after school with activities that promote age appropriate development.
- ◆ All programs/services/supports functioning together to promote community involvement.
- ◆ An effective system will be an equitable system. Transportation won't be an obstacle, understanding the community needs, working with youth serving agencies to understand services being provided and finding ways to address gaps for youth & families that do need meet the outline eligibility requirements of the Trust, but can't afford youth programs/services. An ideal system would be all agencies serving youth would work together to ensure youth have a pipeline of services from 0-18.
- ◆ Collaboration, communication, and support among programs.
- ◆ Collaborative and Collective work towards opportunities and programs that "see" and "center" our youth.
- ◆ Communication, listening, responding to what the community needs, holistic approach that embodies intersecting identities, create transitional plans from 0-5 centers to providers beginning at 5 years old, school system support/increased communication of out of school programs, all organizations being trauma informed
- ◆ Comprehensive solutions to issues and challenges families and children have.
- ◆ Coordinated efforts where groups are able to function in their areas of expertise. Groups who are strong in areas collaborating with other groups who may not be as strong.
- ◆ Coordinated, collaborative efforts that reach children in the areas they spend most of their time and that actively engage parents.
- ◆ CTAC should serve a role like the dissolved "BOOST" initiative, which had all providers together, working in a coordinated and strategic way.
- ◆ Education and cooperation
- ◆ ELC rules and rates do not help us to provide services for kids that are subsidized by them. I lose over $5,000 a month...so I will try to serve less and less ELC children. Which is very sad!
- ◆ Ensure they enter that system of supports early (prenatally or right after birth)
- ◆ Existing supports working more closely together with a common goal.
- ◆ External committees working with the district to fill in the gaps
- ◆ Holistic interventions that serve the entire family system. For example, we prioritize adding siblings into our literacy program. We have got to all get on the same page. There can't be 500 different organizations doing 500 different things serving the same people. That's ridiculous. If I am dreaming of a utopia situation, it would be that we all let go of our individual ways we think we are helping and look at the data-what programs are working, what is helping and put all our money and energy into those things and collaborate together, we can actually make a big difference in Alachua County. We can't do that if organizations that are proving themselves don't have the funds to expand. We have to fund programs that make systemic changes that change the trajectory of kids' lives. For example, it's nice to put books in the hands of children that don't have them, but we have libraries. That doesn't teach a child to read. Another example: a group got funded by the county to fix roofs of people who can't afford it. They got funding for about $15,000. Why not take that money and teach 1-4 people to start their own roofing company. It makes absolutely no sense to me that our county/city funds things that make people feel like they are doing something helpful. Also, things take too long. While people are doing needs assessments/research etc, people are going without the resources they need. Most of CTAC's providers know what is needed in our community. Listen to us. We work day in and day out with people.

- ◆ I envision a system where parents are able to connect to all services through a centralized hub that understands the different services provided and the limits of those services.
- ◆ I see a community that acts as the village who raises the child. I see a community that mirrors a happy family. Allowing families a safe and colorful space to be creative and grow imaginations. Creativity and imagination is the birthplace of invention.
- ◆ I see a continuum of care for all students. For quality programming to be available for all age groups. For there to be collaboration amongst providers. For there to be universal systems for things like transportation. Consistent professional development opportunities for all providers.
- ◆ I see a reduction in the numbers of orgs offering services
- ◆ I see a system that connects all agencies, does not duplicate services to more efficiently support the agencies providing the services, keep constant communication and ongoing needs assessments
- ◆ I think it is working effectively, but what we cannot provide and with the economy down we are seeing more in need of basics such as food and housing
- ◆ If each partner promoted the interconnected services that we are working to provide as a web then more diverse populations could be reached. Partners marketing as a collective approach to the populations they serve.
- ◆ Interagency cooperation.
- ◆ Inter-professional interactions that support the Children's Trust and the children and families they serve
- ◆ Layers of support that allow children of all ages the opportunity to receive services. This system ranges in services that include prevention and intervention levels of care and meets the needs of deficits that exist in our community. The system of supports makes accessible services that may otherwise be out of reach for families and levels the playing field of what children can be exposed to despite their circumstance.
- ◆ List of providers and services. There are plenty of kids and families to support, no need to compete for resources.
- ◆ Mentorship programs
- ◆ More action, less talk. More real coordination of actions with fewer meetings. There are a number of agencies doing good work. We know each other and can work well together.
- ◆ More support for early childhood programs
- ◆ People working together positively and cohesive for the good of all children.

- ◆ Programs that are connected with one another, with regular contact about services each provides and updated contact information when we need to refer someone for services.
- ◆ Programs that are easily accessible for all kids regard of parent income level
- ◆ Provide funding and support to organizations that serve our children and youth without so much oversight and micromanagement. We literally could not spend most of the CTAC funds set aside for our youth program because use of funds was so severely restricted. Identify organizations doing excellent work for our youth, grant them funds to carry out that work, and then get out of the way!
- ◆ Services that take into account every point in children's day including the moment they wake up until they go to sleep. This would include meals, support in schools, after school, and home supports.
- ◆ Shared program planning and implementation (key stakeholders all vested in centering our children and youth) that directly responds, evaluates and attends to the needs of the community.
- ◆ Supports that address the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and academic needs of youth and their families.
- ◆ System that includes the entire family.
- ◆ The need for more family engagement activities.
- ◆ User friendly; supports are not useful if they are too cumbersome to access
- ◆ Using an organization's strength to meet the needs
- ◆ Viable resources for schools and communities that don't require a lot of red tape. Easy access for families to take advantage of. Maybe having school and community liaisons to help facilitate partnership.
- ◆ We need to consistently implement the support of other organizations that will tailor to the actual needs of the kids and not a generalized idea of what's needed.
- ◆ When I envision a system of support for Alachua County's children, I think it must be relational, data-driven, and sustainable. Data-driven approaches means we tackle specific, fairly well-understood challenges in ways where the results are measurable and change can be easily seen. I realize not all challenges fall into this category, but many do, particularly in the basics of education, food and housing support. Being sustainable means the focus cannot be solely on outcomes, but must also be on building strong institutions in both the public and non-profit sectors that can take on these takes. This requires sustained funding guarantees that organizations can count on (contingent on results and reporting, of course). An organization that doesn't know if it will have funding year to year cannot invest in quality staff development or long term infrastructure needs. Finally, the support system has to be relational, not only offering services to those who need them, but working to draw those people in to the network itself as stakeholders whose input and work is invited and valued. Empowering people to be agents in their own growth and well-being doubles the impact of these efforts and helps with sustainability as well.
- ◆ When there is enough service providers and accessibility for all faucet of activities and support services for all youth in our county to attend that has a desire too.
- ◆ Youth receiving the services that they are in need of and seeing results of them working effectively.

17. Are there any other indicators that you believe the Trust should use in measuring progress in meeting its goals of improving the lives of children?

Response	#	%
Yes	20	36%
No	35	64%
Total	55

If yes: What are they?

- ◆ Breastfeeding rates (which increases physical health, bonding/trust and improves mental health)
- ◆ Emergency room visits for mental health disorders
- ◆ Engagement/participation in extracurricular activity
- ◆ Household Income
- ◆ How many children and youth have or have had a parent or caregiver incarcerated
- ◆ If the children's trust is going to use these indicators with the goal of improving children's lives, it must also examine what is actually measured by these indicators. Many of these are racially based and reflect little on what is actually happening in the community. For example, studies show that black and other children of color are disproportionately removed from their homes and placed into gov. care, and while this can indicate inadequate care at home, what it does is punish poor or poc for having children. These people are not numbers.
- ◆ Income of the kids who have graduated ACPS 1 year and 5 years post graduation
- ◆ infant mortality; unintentional injuries for children under 5
- ◆ Let's get indicators that speak to the home life of the child such as: no biological parent in the home, addicts or incarcerated persons in the home. Witness to domestic violence
- ◆ Maternal death/preterm birth/teen pregnancy/repeat teen pregnancy/maternal substance use
- ◆ Maternal health & wellness, access to healthy foods & health information
- ◆ Partnership and collaborations - what organizations/agencies are working together to meet the needs?
- ◆ Percent of children getting medical care, and separately dental care, each year
- ◆ Percentage of gold seal early childhood programs
- ◆ Prevalence of children with untreated tooth decay; Rate of pediatric emergency department visits for preventable dental problems

20. One particular area of concern is reducing disparities in child outcomes. What are your thoughts for how the Trust might better tackle this issue? (40 Providers responded to this question).

- ◆ address family dynamic and mental health
- ◆ Address the issues that concern the community and not blanket social issues
- ◆ Addressing inequities in childhood outcomes at individual, familial, social, and political levels, as well with a holistic approach, will have the greatest impact.
- ◆ communication and transparency
- ◆ Community engagement and Literacy education
- ◆ Continue to collaborate and seek out innovative solutions
- ◆ Continue to invest in current programs that are proving quality care and programming.
- ◆ continued partnership with childcare facilities and schools. Partner with churches and community centers.
- ◆ Create awareness around the problem to citizens in the community. Particularly in the business sector. Businesses will be impacted drastically when these children are in the workforce. They are most likely not aware of the disparity growing in our community.
- ◆ Create measurable objectives.
- ◆ Cross sector partnerships and community-embedded assessment and evaluation
- ◆ Ensure that programs being funded are in the communities with the highest levels of disparities to ensure the resources are allocated as needed.
- ◆ Ensuring resources are equally available to all children and families through place-based supports and resources to help families overcome barriers to success (e.g., financial stability, housing, childcare, transportation).
- ◆ focus programming on children and youth who have the most limited access
- ◆ Help children have access to life-long experiences in the arts or any activity that presents challenges at multiple levels leading to mastery.
- ◆ Highlight and give preference to organizations and programs directly addressing these disparities; make this a part of the Trust's core mission.
- ◆ I feel that more work has to be done in the schools. Teachers and Admin can try to focus more on what the child is good at instead of what they struggle in. Approaching the child with their gifts can help the child feel more confident and curious about knowledge.

This is the approach "Gifted" students get. Why can't all children have the same approach?

- ◆ Identify early indicators to prevent disparities
- ◆ Improve the quality of early childhood programs 0 to 5 years especially those serving children who are on school readiness
- ◆ Increase collaboration across agencies to identify the barriers and gaps in service.
- ◆ Increase funding and funding opportunities to providers
- ◆ Involving community members in helping to design and test solutions.
- ◆ It depends on the outcomes you are attempting to tackle. Educational outcomes (qualitative and quantitative research related to best practices for the population being served).
- ◆ It is best to support organizations who are vested in the communities that they serve and whose staff reflect the demographics of the families. It is also critical to consider impact!
- ◆ Just as the needs of the people we serve are broad, I think the question is too broad.
- ◆ Look at what is causing the disparity and fix it. For example we know that reading scores are highly linked to graduation rates, truancy, crime, etc. so we have to increase the reading scores. The schools have proven over and over again they can't do it. We have the highest racial disparity gap in the state. Find organizations that are fixing these problems and start them here.
- ◆ Make sure as much funding as possible goes directly to service provision. Less money on studies, less money on meetings, less money on consultants, or even on innovating. We have organizations doing good work, the role of CTAC is to support them and make sure the work is getting done.
- ◆ Making sure the initiatives have that equity component where all populations are served by people who look and speak like them. Making sure that race, ethnicity, income and location are not limiting the services available.
- ◆ More comprehensive prevention and outreach efforts, more extensive supports of early childhood education and training
- ◆ One thing PALS does is provide mentorship through the leadership group and PALS counselors. This gives the children motivation they may or may not be getting elsewhere.
- ◆ Parenting support and from birth. Connecting those families to resources/referrals/support. Increased home visiting programs.
- ◆ Partner/support organizations that are addressing the disparities.
- ◆ Promote and support mental health education of behavioral disorders caused by environmental stressors
- ◆ Provide access to quality educational programs and make sure that the standards of programming is met by providers and agencies.
- ◆ Taking the needed resources to the children. Meaning establishing partnerships in various communities
- ◆ This question is unclear. We will take "child outcomes" to mean a child becoming a healthy, happy adult with few obstacles in their way. This goal ultimately requires systemic dismantling and reconstruction, but the Trust can contribute to this goal by listening to the community, providing families with aid, and seeking to eradicate poverty.
- ◆ Try to determine the core cause(s) and decide if the Trust can (reasonably) tackle them

- ◆ Underserved families don't use resources available to them, and I don't understand why. The Trust can reduce disparities in child outcomes by engaging their families in accessing available resources.
- ◆ What kind of data are we looking at to determine which disparities need to be addressed? How will that data be updated regularly and securely?
- ◆ work with groups who work with children

21. In what areas does the Trust struggle the most right now? Why do you think it is struggling in those areas? (30 Providers responded to this question).

- ◆ 1. Leadership-the firing/hiring of a new director put a hold on a lot. It needed to be done, but it's been tough.
- ◆ 2. Funding. There are way too many programs that have proven results and have increased participation and have had no increase in funding. I don't know that the board knows the ins and outs of all of these organizations and the importance of what they do.
- ◆ As a relatively new organization, community trust may not be fully established.
- ◆ Become more visible in the community so that people will be aware of what resources you provide.
- ◆ Behavioral disorders. Neglectful of the underlying mental health triggers
- ◆ Board Management the lack of understanding nonprofits, grants, and programs
- ◆ Bringing providers together
- ◆ communication and understanding the needs of the organizations working with the children
- ◆ Community's trust and collaboration. Our community tends to be divided and untrusting.
- ◆ Don't see the Trust struggling. Could reduce paperwork reporting from monthly to bi-yearly.
- ◆ Efficiency, getting resources to clients in a timely manner
- ◆ I don't think enough partners have utilized the staff's willingness to partner. As such, some of the community members are living off of old memories.
- ◆ I have not noted any areas. Everyone always does a fantastic job as far as we're concerned.
- ◆ Innovation and equity
- ◆ lack customer-focus, efficiency, collaboration
- ◆ Leadership challenges. Building relationships with the community and providers.
- ◆ Making decisions about programing
- ◆ Management of providers. Reason: growing pains of building a rapidly growing operation within a government agency.
- ◆ Provider Support, Transportation Support
- ◆ Stability and predictability. With changes in leadership and changes in its activities, the Trust seems to still be figuring out what it wants to do and how it wants to do it. Organizations needs sustaining support and that requires predictability and commitment from the Trust. Right now many organizations are thankful for the Trust's support but do not trust that it will be there for the, even in the near future.

- ◆ Still a fairly new organization with new senior staff. Goals continue to be tweaked which is expected and necessary.
- ◆ Strategy, transparency, and organization. The Trust is still pretty new and has struggled to distribute funds in an organized manner which frustrated many nonprofits in the community who were counting on support. Past leadership also brewed distrust amongst nonprofits.
- ◆ Supporting agencies in a real time manner.
- ◆ The biggest challenge right now is getting on a consistent funding cycle. I think the reason why is because the whole thing started with a bang and has been playing catch-up ever since. Wild as understandable, it leaves organizations in limbo.
- ◆ The Trust appears to need more employees so that their process may work faster.
- ◆ The Trust struggles with building connections and relationships with providers and their teams. We believe the Trust would benefit from modernizing and prioritizing relationships over data.
- ◆ Timeliness in putting out funding opportunities and administration of those funds. The Trust is new, so we are all learning as we go.
- ◆ Too much oversight and micromanagement of providers and funding recipients. You trust us to serve the county's youth; why don't you trust us to responsibly spend resources you've allocated to us to support those youth?
- ◆ Trust, equitability, consistency and barriers. Youth/families falling between the gap because they don't meet Trust eligibility requirements, yet they can't afford youth programs. Providers waiting three months or more for reimbursement of services placing burdens on providers, Google doc/spreadsheet too time consuming and complicated for some placing additional burdens on providers, no trust in the Trust. Too many barriers to access funding causing some not to want to go through the headache of applying and seeking funding elsewhere.
- ◆ TRUST-RESPECT-TRANSPARENC
- ◆ We could always use more assistance with making the reporting process more manageable so that it's not so time-consuming.

22. Thinking about the Trust today, what would say are its biggest strengths? (46 Providers responded to this question).

- ◆ A team that is committed to doing work that helps children
- ◆ Always looking to improve be involving all stakeholders
- ◆ Based on my perspective, I think the strengths of the Trust revolve around 1) the staff and their commitment to making sure the mission of the Trust is fulfilled; and 2) some of the success the Trust has achieved through the community partnerships.
- ◆ Capacity for providing funding for strong programming and growing/expanding effective programming.
- ◆ Collaboration
- ◆ Collaboration. Willingly and actively seeking community partners to better serve children.
- ◆ Communication and the relationships between providers and staff.

- ◆ Community outreach, transparency with initiatives, and keeping the community's well-being as a priority

- ◆ Staff
- ◆ Support of innovation and new approaches to serving students and communities.
- ◆ Supporting children in need
- ◆ The ability and desire to bring together existing and new community resources for the common cause of improving outcomes for our community's children.

- ◆ I am very glad we have the Trust in our community. I would love to see more knowledge in the community about the presence of the Trust and what it is doing for them. We all should be a big network.
- ◆ I believe the Trust is moving forward in a very positive way. Keep increasing collaboration and transparency to build trust within the community! As a fellow funder, it can be stressful allocating funds to agency partners. I would highly recommend establishing solid policies and procedures regarding funding while also establishing accountability measures for the agencies you fund. If United Way can ever help please let us know.

- ◆ Facilities available for rehearsals, performances

I specialize in intervention and special education in the areas of reading, writing, math, and special education. There is a paywall that prevents me from providing services to those who need it most in our community. Only half of children learn to read here but there is no accessible professional development plan for schools and organizations. There are few skilled interventionists. I have a waiting list but only two people in our community who are knowledgeable enough for me to refer to and they have waiting lists too. I provide special education consulting for families but it is hard to make proper referrals because our system of services is fractured and there is a lack of evidence-based therapies for children.*

This is the same for the schools and organizations I work with. They often feel soooo grateful to learn these things. They are hungry for it.*

- ◆ tem, particularly those who use evidence based practices (there are many who mean well but aren't). Providers needs professional development to better meet the needs of our community. Only half the kids in our community have access to effective reading instruction, only a quarter of black kids, but we have no cohesive plan for providing support for them or the organizations who serve them. The outcomes for writing are far lower but we don't track those data. I have waitlists for intervention, special education case management, and PD but know only a couple of people I can refer out to.
- ◆ No/None (multiple responses)
- ◆ Facilitate in finding consistent funding for the local Child Care business as do the public schools.
- ◆ Quarterly meetings instead of biannual
- ◆ Sponsor conferences
- ◆ Encourage cooperation and acknowledgment of how our work interfaces and does not compete among us.
- ◆ LISTEN and diligently note what they identify as barriers to serving their clients. THEN help with targeted collaborative problem solving and follow-through.
- ◆ Provider Retreats paid for by the Trust. Compensate providers for attending meetings.
- ◆ Communication between providers is pretty limited - as we have children in our care during the day so no time for much and by closing time, we are exhausted and just want to go home and rest!
- ◆ Make it a prerequisite for funding
- ◆ Until taking this survey, I was unaware that our organization was being considered under the Trust! Would please love more information about this.
- ◆ Monthly emails and a virtual bulletin board are important ways of communicating information--but they are ineffective at facilitating coordination between providers.
- ◆ I would see if Directors would be willing to have a rotating meeting in each ones' facility. We would then each both get to see another school as well as share our school. We used to way back when have director meetings, and we would rotate locations. It was a great way to meet and see what other facilities looked like when children and teachers were not in the building.
- ◆ Support for families

Envisioning a System of Supports

10. The mission of the Children's Trust of Alachua County is to "fund and support a coordinated system of community services that allows all youth and their families to thrive." When you envision a system of supports for our children and youth in Alachua County that works effectively, what do you see? (26 partners responded to this question)

- ◆ A thriving, healthy, well-informed community.
- ◆ Yes it a very nice one
- ◆ We have a clear list of evidence-based providers.
- ◆ All afterschool programs and organizations who serve children have access to high quality professional development and ongoing coaching to support them in providing instructional services to children. Homework help is not enough to close the gaps we have. We have a cadre of highly trained tutors who can be assigned to sites throughout the county to provide tutoring in afterschool programs and community centers.

- ◆ We have high quality mental health services and a clear line of referral for different levels of service.
- ◆ Ongoing, cost-effective training opportunities for parents, a map of existing services, and a plan for filling gaps in evidence-based services.
- ◆ All adolescents and teens have access to the instructional, mental health, and developmental resources they need to fill any gaps before becoming parents.
- ◆ We have a disability/learning resource center to be a hub of activities and services for a wide range of needs.
- ◆ The center would provide services, consultation, professional development, and logistical support to families and organizations.
- ◆ Communication, Education, Mental health Counseling, Exposure, Availability of Food for families
- ◆ A network of providers working together to not make helping "hard" but also built in accountability within services, so families receive what they need but also strive to take advantage of their resources to advance socially and economically.
- ◆ A system where organizations are aware of each other and when an organization encounters an individual with a need, they are able to successfully refer that individual to someone that can directly address their need.
- ◆ I see Consistent Funding for local Child Care businesses to aid in Quality Employees, Employee Retention, Child Care business retention in our communities
- ◆ Good wages and benefits for Child Care Employees
- ◆ Resources for children and their families such as stable and consistent financial supports.
- ◆ We already have generally effective interagency communication; this can always be improved/enhanced.
- ◆ For the lower served community I see more programs – sports, reading, tutoring, family support
- ◆ Providers being helped financially to provide quality care.
- ◆ An online resource hub such as a classroom or website that houses all the information and is readily accessible.
- ◆ In person partnerships that help bring the resources to the families.
- ◆ Groups working together collaboratively.
- ◆ Reliable community connections that align resources to support shared children/families in need.
- ◆ Parents are supported in empowerment and getting their needs met.
- ◆ Children are offered opportunities to participate in programs within walking distance of their homes without charge. Soccer, basketball, gardening, art, sewing, language skills like creating a word game or other creative things.
- ◆ Collaboration between organization so that the whole family is supported
- ◆ Constant surveillance of communication systems within provider networks and to/from communities served. LISTEN to what is identified as barriers to getting support services and COLLABORATIVELY problem solve and follow-through. Don't just throw money at a potential solution and hope it sticks. Stay with it to help the provider networks embrace and use and make changes as needed.

- ◆ Obviously funding of the solutions and process is essential.
- ◆ Community partnership collaborations
- ◆ Communication
- ◆ Partnership
- ◆ Shared Resources
- ◆ I see the community helping develop programming for at risk youth and disadvantaged families.
- ◆ I see the trust working with EX CONS and funding a program to help address teen gun violence.
- ◆ I see the Trust addressing the Social Determinants of Health to lead to healthier families instead of helping to put out small fires.
- ◆ Help for all ages of children, from birth upwards.
- ◆ I see the CTAC has become more focused on school age children and forgot about under 5's. If there was some focus on prevention, rather than fixing the problems after they have occurred once they enter the school system, although it might take time to see results, we might have better results and less problematic children in the school system.
- ◆ There are other issues at play with children, such as parents with no parenting skills 'raising' children but doing damage without even realizing it.
- ◆ Connecting the family, children and school
- ◆ A system of unduplicated services within one geographic area and system that supports data driven decisions.
- ◆ More collaborative grants
- ◆ More voucher based systems so parents can pick.
- ◆ A system that helps families feel economically and emotionally stable so they are able to provide healthy options for their kids.
- ◆ A sharper focus and support of the creative arts and their benefits to kids from all socioeconomic backgrounds.
- ◆ A "one-stop-shop" resource/referral center. Providers, organizations, and families can refer children to this free service that will connect them to all the resources each child needs.
- ◆ Full evaluations should be provided as needed.
- ◆ There should be a "social worker" of sorts assigned to each child that is referred --who assists in coordinating services as needed.
- ◆ Multidisciplinary--transdisciplinary teams can also be facilitated out of this R&R center.
- ◆ A hub where all providers, home daycares, Centers, and stand-alone kindergartens can work together and collaborate, And the children's trust would work as the hub or container for these groups to collaborate.
- ◆ A comprehensive, collaborative strategy for ensuring children born in Alachua County are cared for
- ◆ When there is enough service providers and accessibility for all facet of activities and support services for all youth in our county to attend that has a desire to.

- ◆ Youth receiving the services that they are in need of and seeing results of them working effectively.

14. If you could improve just one thing in Alachua County to help all children/youth thrive, what would it be? (27 partners responded to this question.)

- ◆ Active recreation for all kids, not just those that can afford it.
- ◆ Have transportation, and especially those in the western urban reserve where nothing really exists.
- ◆ Parents who model positive communication and support with their children-- by ending domestic violence.
- ◆ Improve this mental health and financial status

- ◆ I would put funding into the hands of those most impacted by issues facing our community and let them guide us as to how to address them.
- ◆ *The ability to have parent training classes for parents that does not impact their jobs or income. There should be a "social worker" of sorts assigned to each child that is referred --who assists in coordinating services as needed. - ◆ Mental health counseling
- ◆ Foster care rates

- ◆ Is there repressed grief that shows up as anger?

- ◆ Mental health state of our community at various ages, such as preschool, kindergarten, middle school & high school
- ◆ Mental health and wellness of middle/high school kids, belonging, self-confidence, support for LGBTQIA+/Trans youth in middle/high school
- ◆ Nurturing caregivers: Many indicators are negative (arrests/maltreatment)--a positive indicator might be percentage of/access to/affordability of quality childcare.
- ◆ Primary care givers, do they have one?

18. One particular area of concern is reducing disparities in child outcomes. What are your thoughts for how the Trust might better tackle this issue? (20 partners responded to this question).

- ◆ Address family dynamic and mental health
- ◆ We need a map of existing services and a strategic plan for filling the gaps, particularly for children with disabilities and learning losses.
- ◆ Solicit providers that will focus mainly on the disparities and closing the gap. Providers will have to focus mainly on recruiting personnel who are experts in their area.
- ◆ Not familiar enough with the Trust to know.
- ◆ To support child care centers etc. and to use centers as a resource for trainings etc.
- ◆ Coordinating further interagency communications
- ◆ Low academic performance.
- ◆ Start with the education system, the university is a great resource for volunteers who may want to help in schools
- ◆ Fund underserved populations.
- ◆ Support the family unit and determine barriers for early learning
- ◆ Reach as many children and parents as possible, build trust and come through consistently as a true friend. Like pair people up in relationships for mutual benefit. Takes time to build trust and connection.
- ◆ Use mapping, including hot spot mapping as possible, of outcome data to better visualize geography of challenge areas and progress to achieve improved equity and reduce disparities
- ◆ Educating the community
- ◆ Disaggregate all data and begin each meeting with an update to maintain razor sharp focus
- ◆ Increase grant opportunities and funding
- ◆ Get a bigger budget! The disparities in this country and ingrained in the system of the country, changing this at a local level will be almost impossible as the State & country are fighting against this goal.
- ◆ Work together with agencies who are providing those services to determine common outcomes that will address the issue.
- ◆ Grant support for neighborhood learning opportunities that are required to demonstrate positive learning outcomes as measured by state assessments of learning progress.
- ◆ Research/Find out what causes the disparities in child outcomes. From those results--prioritize and formulate measurable goals to tackle the top 3 causes of disparities in child outcomes.
- ◆ Creating a network that addresses child development with appropriate education for providers and parents.

19. In what areas does the Trust struggle the most right now? Why do you think it is struggling in those areas? (15 partners responded to this question).

- ◆ Thinking strategically. It seems like we are funding programs at random. The Trust has opportunity to be a backbone organization to guide collective impact work but we are wrapped up in funding programs but lack a real plan for that work. We have five areas of need, we need an in-house expert in each of areas to guide that work and to support other organizations in maximizing their effectiveness (and revenue streams) in those areas. The two needs assessments that have been completed to date have been contracted out. A report will be delivered to the trust and maybe a couple of activities but the real knowledge and experience gained from listening will live outside the Trust. We need a community research position tasked with ongoing listening and knowledge building.
- ◆ The Trust does not seem to understand that the very providers they need are those located in the areas of need. They most likely don't have the funds to initially pay for salaries, materials, etc.
- ◆ Hands on outreach, getting deeper in the community
- ◆ Community recognition
- ◆ Information dissemination, getting information to people who are intentionally looking for it is incredibly difficult.
- ◆ I really don't know. If you have a surplus of funds, just finding ways that really make a difference. Evidence-based projects in conjunction with UF might be good.
- ◆ Transparency in areas of funding and accountability of path to achieving greater equity and reduced disparities
- ◆ Bringing the community together
- ◆ Trust. History.
- ◆ Promoting itself to the masses and having an impact on the most amount of people. It has to decide does it help most people a little, or a subset of people a lot because I doubt it can do both.
- ◆ Holding grant recipients and contractors accountable for demonstrating that their funded activities are having a meaningful impact on the education and success of children.
- ◆ I have no idea about the Trust's struggles. If the Trust is struggling in any area, one guess that I have is that it was created to be a group of knowledgeable experts --but no one in the group (from what I can tell) is currently working in the trenches doing the day-to-day work with children and their families. I think a diverse team, that includes people on the front lines would be an important/essential improvement. At the very least, regular collaboration and communication with front-line workers should be a major focus. This survey is one way to let the Trust know what is really going on day-to-day. It's a good step forward.
- ◆ I think the concerns are so large and so vast that it isn't possible for the trust to be responsible for all the areas that need to be addressed.
