PUBLIC WISHING TO SPEAK

Steve Irmen spoke to the board about his questions regarding the Cortland Garage Sales and Craft & Vendor show. He will be taking over responsibility of the show. He had asked about the dates set for May 12 & 13, 2023, if they are acceptable, and what the town typically provides for the show. Board members stated that this is not an event hosted by the town, but resources are available upon request. Steve also asked about the appropriate signs he can use, both Police and Engineer commented that most signs are acceptable, but Ms. Williams stated she will send over the appropriate specifications.

Ben Haier introduced himself to the board. He has been a Planning Commission member for years but recently was elected a seat on the County Board. Because of conflicts of interests, he must resign his Planning Commission seat. He thanked the board for their forwardness with the community.

PRESENTATION- LIFE SAVING AWARD TO PEGGY HOPKINS

Chief Lin Dargis presented the Life Saving Award to Officer Peggy Hopkins for her remarkable and swift acts. Officer Hopkins responded to a call where an individual was found unconscious. Officer Hopkins was quick with her decisions to use Narcan on the individual. The individual was okay.
