Chief Kohler said he hoped they got the grant the second time around. Chief Kohler thanked Councilmember Lee for providing the manual for the generator. Councilmember Lee said the current generator was a military generator and having the book on that model did help as they did not have one previously. City Administrator Dixon said the city council could look at this size of generator for the new facility during the CIP discussions. Councilmember Martinez asked how much would a generator that size power up. Chief Kohler said it would provide power for the whole building. Councilmember Lee said staff needed to look at a maintenance agreement related to diesel when they installed one.

Mayor Schroeder said the city was trying to do what was best to maintain the building. Ms. Fierro said her company worked with small municipalities, had worked on the Medina County Court House project and understood the limited funding for these projects. Ms. Fierro provided a slide presentation and City Administrator Dixon spoke briefly on the history of the building and the past updates to the building on the windows and roof. Mr. Dixon spoke on the current plans submitted for consideration to the state for approval. Ms. Fierro said she had spoken with the Texas Historic Commission's representative and they wanted to have the city keep the window seals and expansion. Ms. Fierro provided details on a design and a team from Texas would be assigned to the project. Ms. Fierro said she would work with others to get creative funding, possible grants, or low-interest loans working with the city's financial advisors. Ms. Fierro said the streamline approach of a design build they would be the responsible party and would work with the city on Owner Project Criteria, the Preliminary Service Agreement for schematic designs and the design build proposal for the construction of the project. Ms. Fierro said this type of process sped up project delivery, construction speed, lower unit cost, less change orders/cost increases and less schedule delays. City Administrator Dixon said the city had already spent approximately $80,000 on the project and could the information of structural soundness and ground testing be used for cost savings. Ms. Fierro said they could be and would look at incorporating. Ms. Fierro said they had looked at cost savings on the utilities and the city could save through solar options and look at ways to reduce water usage. Councilmember King asked about a presentation given at the Economic Development Corporation meeting on available funding for this project. Mayor Schroeder said the information provided had been more for private projects. City Administrator Dixon said there was the option of working with the USDA for funding.

Mayor Schroeder recessed the meeting at 7:34 p.m. for a short break.
Mayor Schroeder reconvened in open session at 7:42 p.m.

Discussion continued with Councilmember Merz saying he would be leery of federal funding with all that was happening with the government. Councilmember Martinez said she liked seeing all of the options and felt it was a good idea. Ms. Fierro said they could also put multiple buildings together for the procurement process. City Administrator Dixon told the city council staff could go out for Design Build RFQ, if directed. Mayor Schroeder asked about costs and Mr. Dixon said none at this time other than city attorney review.

A motion was made by Councilmember Martinez and duly seconded by Councilmember Merz to approve city staff to let a Request for Qualifications for the remodel of city hall.

Discussion continued before a vote was taken. Councilmember King asked if the city had to go out for proposals for professional services. Councilmember Martinez made an amendment to her first motion and Councilmember Merz agreed.

An amended motion was made by Councilmember Martinez and duly seconded by Councilmember Merz to direct staff to bring back a presentation on Pros and Cons of different options for the city hall remodel project before the RFQ was let for proposals. A vote was taken (4:0 all ayes) the motion carried by all present.

e. Presentation on municipal budgeting methodologies and discuss the FY25-26 budget process

Finance Director Leroy Vidales briefed the city council with a presentation on budgeting methodologies and what the city was currently using. Mr. Vidales said the city had used for years the traditional line item budget system but wanted to provide options if the city council wanted something different. Mr. Vidales spoke briefly on other budget programs available consisting of a Performance – based or Zero – based. There was based budgeting, capital budgeting, incremental budgeting, rolling budgeting, and priority based budgeting. Mr. Vidales said the city used a hybrid budget that included line-item, incremental and capital budgeting. City Administrator Dixon said a survey was being prepared to be sent out to citizens to get input on what they wish to see when the city council was reviewing the CIP priority list. Councilmember Lee asked how the survey would be provided. Mr. Dixon said they had missed the newsletter deadline and it would be on the website but may use Info to get the word out and they wanted citizens to answer the whole survey. Councilmember Martinez asked if commercial businesses would be able to participate. Mr. Dixon said everyone should be able to fill out. Mr. Vidales continued with grant tracking practices with charts saying the spike in funds in 2022 was from the AARPA funds received. Mr. Vidales said the city's audit for 2024 was complete and would be presented at the next council meeting. Mr. Vidales said the audited numbers showed the city only decreased by $3800.00. Councilmember Merz pointed out the charts were not zeroed out and started with 4,000,000 he asked for a correction. Councilmember Lee asked about the number of days the city had in reserves. Mr. Dixon said the required amount was 120 days but the total was 365 days with utilities. Mr. Lee also asked if the city was adding employees in the budget for the gas system. Mr. Dixon said they were adding one position – a supervisor with the street crew members being duly trained on maintenance. Councilmember Lee asked if the overage on budgeted vs actual expenditures had been an oversight or had they been unknown costs. Mr. Vidales said they tried to track and would bring back amendments to the budget each year for the city council to approve. Mr. Lee recommended putting in tracking measures. Councilmember Merz said during approval of the budget, the budget had not been balanced in the utility budget the last few years due to expenditures. City Administrator Dixon said this was correct and the city needed new customers to keep the rates down and be able to issue debt. Councilmember King said he noticed after Mr. Dixon came to the city spending had decreased with better improvements. Councilmember Lee said historically some of the utilities did not support themselves. Mr. Dixon said that had changed and they were now self- supporting, an example given was sewer rates had increased in last few years to whole. Mr. Lee was concerned even though new developments were required to bring water rights would they still put the city in a water shortage. Mr. Dixon said the city council could look at cutting departments and services, or raise taxes, look at fund reserves and put to use but this would be questions for how they wish to proceed for 2025. Councilmember Lee liked the current process showing transparency and able to adjust accordingly. Councilmember Merz was not in favor of tax increases but a poll he took of neighbors brought to light they would be in favor of an increase if tied to a service improvement such as street improvements. Mr. Merz said the budget was online but citizens were unclear of what the budget was used for and would like to see more explanation of what used for and cost similar to program budgeting. Mr. Merz said it should reflect regular maintenance on infrastructure annually and use. Mr. Merz said he did not see in going to a performance based budget but should have a conversation on what could be done or removed. Councilmember Martinez asked for a department breakdown of projects and manpower for each year to get a better understanding. Mr. Dixon said he would be bringing a presentation on forecasting for next year. Councilmember Martinez asked when they would be reviewing the CIP projects and Mr. Dixon said it would be May as he wanted the survey completed for the city council to see what the citizens felt was important and in conjunction with the budget.
