Bemidji library to cut staff, hours following County Board budget cuts

KAXE

The Bemidji Public Library on a sunny Sept. 10, 2025.

Bemidji Public Library will shift from being open six days a week to four, as well as reduce its staff by two employees.

BEMIDJI — The Bemidji Public Library is cutting its hours and reducing its staff following budget cuts from Beltrami County.

Effective March 30, the library will be open fewer hours and fewer days each week. The new hours will be 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

The library is also losing Children’s Librarian Michael Lyons and Outreach and Adult Programming Coordinator Kate Egelhof. Their last day will be Friday, March 27.

“These changes would not have occurred had the Beltrami County Board of Commissioners not cut the library’s budget by over 40% despite public outcry,” stated a library news release. “If you disapprove of this decision, please contact the [Board] and urge them to restore library funding.”

Last fall, Beltrami County commissioners introduced and ultimately adopted a budget with a significant reduction of its previous funding to the Bemidji and Blackduck libraries.

In 2025, the Beltrami County Board budgeted more than $437,000 for the Bemidji and Blackduck libraries, but for 2026, the board budgeted $265,000 — which is the minimum maintenance of effort for local governments to contribute to regional libraries.

“The way that the funding is done is that the state Legislature mandates that every funding source fund a minimum level of funding in order to participate in the Minnesota Regional Library System,” explained Branch Manager Sherry Warren in a previous interview. “Those numbers were set in 2011 based on budget numbers from 2009.”

Since Blackduck already operates near the state’s minimum standard of at least 20 hours per week, most of the cuts are coming out of the Bemidji library.

2026 OPERATIONS

Why are we open Monday-Wednesday, 10:30am-5:30pm?

Operational support from Arrowhead Library System through courier and IT services is available on weekdays. This is how interlibrary loan is possible.

Necessary City of Grand Rapids IT, Buildings & Maintenance, and Public Works support services are available on weekdays.

This schedule offers both morning and early evening hours to accommodate our youngest patrons, caregivers, working patrons, and students who visit after school.

Important social services through other local agencies (open/available on weekdays) occur here.

Patrons requiring the greatest in-person support visit us on Mondays.

Mondays already have the greatest number of returned books and require the most staff and volunteer support to check in and shelve.

Weekday hours allow us to maintain some programs such as kids and teens book clubs, in-person storytime, and support for homeschool families. Additionally, we can provide service on early school release days (Wednesdays) for local kids and families.

Looking forward

1 Maintaining service levels

A loss of funding hinders our ability to provide programs, services, and access for the community.

2 Finding a long-term funding solution

Without cooperative funding from Itasca County and/or significant library legislation changes at the state level, it will be difficult to return to previous staffing and service levels.

3 Building maintenance

- Phase I of the Façade Maintenance & Repair plan was completed in late fall 2023.
- Phase II includes necessary - and costly - roof replacement

March in Children's

Howdy-ho peeps! The sun is shining, the sky is blue, and if there was a mountain meadow available, I would be spinning with my arms open wide belting out some version of "The hills are alive..." Why? Because it beats the alternative, and spring is my favorite season. Here are some highlights from March:

- Book time is still attracting the crowds. Yesterday, (3/24/2026) Book Time had 60 participants! Shannon Sweeney and Courtney Gaddie do a phenomenal storytime. I'm grateful for over 3 decades of storytime collaboration with ECFE, and I'm eager to take over the reins in June and July.
- Diana Magner taped Artastic tutorials for both March and April, as she is jetting off to spend a few weeks across the pond. We always have eager people snapping up Artastic kits on the first day they are available.
- I will be taping another set of book reviews for KAXE next week.
- I attended a CLAS (Children's Librarians of the Arrowhead System) meeting this month. These are biannual meetings where we get the majority of area Children's Librarians in the same room. It is outstanding, and energizing, to be surrounded by people who very much understand your challenges...and your successes.
- We had an initial planning meeting for Summer Reading at GRAL.
- The St. Joseph's preschool had their fourth annual Library Day in March. Cindy Eckert, preschool teacher extraordinaire, does a remarkable job holding class in the library's program room. (Their insurance prohibits teachers from transporting students, so, in order to come to the library, other adults have to bring the students.) Each student has a special adult, and they accompany their child into the library for storytime, and then for a special activity comparing fiction and non-fiction books. At the end of their day, they all gather to discuss what they have learned and discovered. It is a day I very much look forward to.

Happy Reading!
