3. 2026 Workplan

Former City Councilmember Barb Sanderson joined the Human Rights Commission meeting this evening. She discussed Indigenous People's Day and spoke about how the Human Rights Commission was formed back in December of 2014 of which she was instrumental in its forming. The first IPDay was a big success in 2015 with a big pow-wow in the Kramer's parking lot and a thousand people attended.

She also discussed how a plaque gets passed around at the University of Madison, Wisconsin, which helps remind the citizens that their city is on native land. It would be nice to do something like that in Grand Rapids, or even something like a welcome sign in each storefront written in Ojibwe. Former City Councilmember Sanderson stated that in order to make a difference with Indigenous People's Day, the Tribe needs to be more involved, even if the Human Rights Commission decides to purchase a plaque like University of Madison does, to move around in the city.

A work group for Indigenous People's Day was set up to include Commissioners Leone, Ducharme, Pope-Sears and Council Representative MacGregor. They will need to reach out to the Tribal members as soon as possible for Indigenous People's Day.

Announcement from Council Representative MacGregor that the Braver Angels for July will probably not be happening.

Also Commissioner Leone said that there are events coming up such as the 4 Directions Festival, ADA Pride Month in July and Dissolve the Divide, all can be added to the agenda in June.

4. Grand Rapids Area Human Rights Fund Draft-Community Foundation

Commissioner Learmont gave the Commission his latest draft for review and discussion. The Commission discussed how funds from the private sector can't co-mingle with the public sector and the importance of appointing an advisor. Commission Chair Miller will make an appointment to talk to the City Administrator and Mindy at the Community Foundation regarding where they are with this Draft.

5. Walk for Life-September

This item was tabled until the June agenda. The Commission may ask them to come and present their upcoming event.

UPDATES:

6. Housing

The Fair Housing is ending this month.

7. City Council Updates

Council Representative MacGregor said that Commission Chair Blomquist's resignation was accepted by the City Council on April 27th, 2026.

8. Stomp on Stigma

Commission Chair Miller will reach out to them for their upcoming event on May 2nd to see if they need any more volunteers. Also, they could add this event to the 2027 Workplan.

Notes:
 City Council eliminated a set budget for the Human Rights Commission in 2026. Estimated costs are ballpark for the entire event – not necessarily a direct contribution expected or anticipated from either the HRC or City of Grand Rapids.

Summary Description of Goals and Activities

The Commission will conduct a comprehensive review of city ordinances related to human rights to clarify the HRC's role and ensure alignment with current city regulations. This review will help commissioners better understand their authority, responsibilities, and the scope of their work in protecting human rights within the community. The ordinance review will provide a framework for future decision-making and help define how the Commission can most effectively serve the community within its legal mandate.

FAIR HOUSING ACT SUPPORT

The Commission will support the development of a work group to explore fair housing issues and possible panel discussions or other community engagement opportunities within Itasca County. This activity aims to increase awareness of fair housing rights, identify housing discrimination concerns, and provide education to community members about their rights and responsibilities under fair housing laws. The work group may partner with local housing authorities, advocacy organizations, and community stakeholders to create meaningful dialogue and resources around housing equity.

PRESENTATIONS TO OUTSIDE ORGANIZATIONS (QUARTERLY)

The Commission will conduct quarterly presentations to outside organizations such as schools, service clubs (Rotary, Lions, etc.), faith communities, and civic groups. These presentations will raise community awareness about the HRC's role, educate audiences about human rights and protected classes, provide outreach to diverse community segments, and create opportunities to listen to community concerns. Each presentation will be tailored to the specific audience and may include information about discrimination prevention, the complaint process, and available resources. This activity supports the vision themes of Community Awareness, Education/Outreach, and Listening to Community.

STORY STITCH EVENT

Story Stitch is a community dialogue facilitation methodology that creates safe spaces for people to share personal stories and build understanding across differences. The Commission will either facilitate a Story Stitch event directly or bring in trained facilitators to lead this community conversation. This event will provide an opportunity for community members to share their lived experiences related to identity, discrimination, belonging, and human rights. Through storytelling and guided dialogue, participants will build empathy, discover common ground, and strengthen community connections. This activity aligns with the vision themes of Education/Outreach, Our Role, and Listening to Community.

BRAVER ANGELS EVENT

Braver Angels is a national organization dedicated to bridging political divides and fostering constructive dialogue across ideological differences. The Commission will either facilitate a Braver Angels workshop or bring in certified Braver Angels facilitators to lead a community event. This structured dialogue will help participants understand different perspectives, reduce contempt and hostility, and find common ground despite political or ideological differences. The event will contribute to building a more cohesive community where diverse viewpoints can coexist respectfully. This activity supports Education/Outreach, Our Role, and Listening to Community vision themes.

QUARTERLY WORKPLAN & BUDGET REVIEW

The Commission will conduct quarterly reviews of its work plan progress and budget expenditures to ensure accountability, transparency, and effective use of resources. These reviews will allow commissioners to assess which activities are meeting their goals, identify any needed adjustments to priorities or approaches, track spending against the annual budget, and ensure alignment with the Commission's vision themes. Regular review creates opportunities for learning, course correction, and strategic planning. This activity reflects the Commission's commitment to responsible stewardship of public resources and effective governance as outlined in Article 10 of the Commission By-Laws.

COMMUNITY EVENT PARTICIPATION & VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT

The Commission will actively participate in and volunteer at established community events throughout the year to increase HRC visibility, demonstrate collaboration with community partners, and engage directly with diverse community members. Target events include Stomp on Stigma (mental health awareness), Pride celebrations (LGBTQ+ support), Soup on the Street (food security and homelessness), Indigenous People's Day, and other community gatherings as opportunities arise. Through this hands-on engagement, commissioners will staff information tables, distribute educational materials about human rights protections, assist with event logistics, and engage in conversations with community members about discrimination and available resources. This visible presence helps vulnerable populations feel uplifted and supported while educating the broader community about human rights. The Commission remains open to participating in additional community events that align with its mission and vision themes. This activity supports Community Awareness, Collaboration, and Listening to Community vision themes.

COMMISSIONER TRAINING AND EDUCATION (ONGOING)

Actions or decisions by the Grand Rapids Human Rights Commission to provide freedom from discrimination require knowledge about the types of prohibited discrimination and ways in which these types of discrimination may occur in employment, housing, real property, public accommodations, public services, education, and unfounded charges (City of Grand Rapids Rules, Division 6 Sec 2-301). The Commission plans to identify and support commissioner training opportunities and activities throughout the year. This may include approaches such as outside speakers, presentation or event sponsorship, community meetings, interviews, identifying and sharing of pertinent news articles or reports, and/or other methods. Commissioner training and education will be an ongoing objective and activity that strengthens the Commission's capacity to serve the community effectively.

Notes:

During the year, adjustments may be made to reflect changes in costs, changes in priorities, changes in format or delivery methods, or identification of human rights concerns that were not identified in compiling the preceding list but which the Commission feels need to be addressed. Examples include:
