Roll Call

The Town of Grand Lake is Announcing Three Finalists for the Town Manager Position

- J. David Fraser of Cheyenne, WY who is currently the Executive Director of the Wyoming Association of Municipalities following roles as a municipal consultant at Municipal Solutions and Town Manager of the City of Boulder, NV during a long career representing municipal interests.
- Guy Patterson of Colorado who is currently managing a Metro District in Durango following Town Manager roles in Hudson, CO, as well as Municipal Administrator jobs in Red Cliff, Timnath, Salida and DeBeque, CO during a 25-year career in public administration.
- Jonathan Cross of Tabernash, CO. A local attorney looking to “end his career on a public service note,” following a lifetime in various roles in Colorado law beginning as Chief Deputy District Attorney for the 18th Judicial District in 1975, followed by over 30 years as a partner in two different firms in private practice with a variety of roles including government entity defense, civil liability and prosecutor.

Candidates will be interviewed by a panel of staff as well as the Trustees who will likely make a decision soon after the meeting so that the incoming manager has a running start on the busy summer events schedule at the Town of Grand Lake that begins with Memorial Day followed by the Annual Chili Cook Off, Rocky Mountain Repertory Theater, 4th of July Fireworks and live music throughout the summer highlighted by Trampled by Turtles at the Grand Lake Folk Festival on July 13th following their July 11th evening at Red Rocks Amphitheatre. The Trustees have established an aggressive Comprehensive Plan for the Town which the incoming manager will be in charge assisting a staff of 18 in of implementing.
