Meeting Minutes March 13, 2025

- The outdoor pool's future is uncertain if a new center is built elsewhere, with possibilities including a skate park or sale.
- The current outdoor pool has a 75-78% cost recovery.

Indoor Aquatics

- The city subsidizes 25% of pool operations.
- A new venue with 70-75% cost recovery is not feasible for the city.
- Combining everything at the current pool site would require significant upgrades and securing/enclosing the outdoor-built structure.
- Building off-site raises questions about the current site's future. Building onto the parking lot and moving the parking lot to the Good Shepherd area is a possibility.

Forestry Grant

- The city has a million-dollar forestry grant that is currently on hold due to the new Trump administration.
- Arbor Pro conducted an assessment and public tree inventory, but operations have stopped pending clearance to spend the funds.
- The grant agency is reimbursing checks, so they will wait another month to see if they can move forward.
- The grant will fund a public tree inventory, tree condition assessments, a tree planting plan, and a tree mitigation plan.

Harrison Park

- Forms have been laid for a ramp to the gazebo and for new park benches and trash cans near the basketball courts.
- Cameras have been installed but are not yet functional due to the need to trench from the charter pedestal to the pump house.
- Kriss Dammeyer will set a date for a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

- Fence posts are in, the grade has been completed, and the fence outline is done.
- Concrete work is scheduled to begin in April, weather permitting.
- Volunteers are working on the landscape area, digging out for concrete pathways.
- There will be ten courts, including the first ADA-accessible courts in the northwest. A small tournament is planned initially, with a larger one potentially run by a group from the Tri-Cities area.

Pickleball Courts

- The path running through the middle is open to the public, not just players. There will be paddle holders and potentially benches or picnic tables.
- The area is enclosed with 10-foot fencing and will be closed off when not in use.
- The Hermiston Pickleball Club will have priority, with a contract/agreement in progress.
- The club may hold up to two tournaments a year.
- The city can hold kids clinics.
- The goal is for the courts to be heavily used, but events will be scheduled.
- The Hermiston Pickleball Club is helping build the courts and giving them to the city.

- There's interest in naming the park after Randy Studebaker and incorporating a "wetland" theme.
- Suggestion: Studebaker Wetland Park or Trail.
- The area includes a park area and a wetland area with a trail and the entire area is considered the Cimarron Recreation Area.
- Survey results indicated preferences for naming after a person (42%), geographical feature (17%), location (13%), or plant/animal.

Top Name Contenders

- Randy Studebaker received 31 nominations in the survey.
- Other names mentioned: Sherman, Walshley.
- Initial top two names: Studebaker and Sherman.
- The committee will table the discussion for a month to further consider the options.

- Rod Herndon advocated for creating a park (now Carlisle Park) when kids were playing
- soccer in the street.

Park Project

- Speaker recalls a situation where there was no money allocated for the park the following year. There was $7,500 available. The speaker decided to use the money for a sprinkler system, FFA kids were the primary workforce for projects. They were hardworking, had equipment, and often brought their fathers. After tilling, the land was rocky and kids helped remove rocks from the field, Jared Boucher seeded the field, kids picked up the remaining rocks.
- A "samoric party" (hot dog party) was organized to get the kids to pick up the remaining small rocks.
- The park was named Harrison Park. The speaker joked about not being dead yet, as the policy was not to name parks after living people. The park was built for $7,500.
