6. NEW BUSINESS

A. Report from Diversity and Inclusion Calendar Subcommittee

Chair Jayne Jennings, and Committee Members Laura Bannister, and Wanda Horne have prepared draft calendar. Chair Jennings stated they have looked at holidays and events from national organizations. Committee Member Bannister mentioned that recognition should be tied to people or events associated to Hendersonville. Committee Member Florence Allbaugh suggested that Mayor Volk should continue her policy of requiring people or groups to specifically request proclamations and said it was important to find a balance of which groups to recognize. Committee Member Allbaugh inquired if staff could put something on social media and the city website asking public for input about which holidays are important to recognize in our community. Committee Member Allbaugh also asked that the city recognize Youth Month and consider establishing an international month or festival to celebrate the variety of heritages in our community.

Committee Members conceded to recognized MLK Day, Black History Month and Women's History Month per the subcommittee suggestions. Future months will be discussed at future meetings.

B. Black History Month Subcommittee Update

Committee Member Melinda Lowrance reported that Wanda Horne has volunteered to get information from the community and said she will be providing information in the next couple of weeks.

C. ARP Funding Presentation - John Connet, City Manager

City Manager John Connet presented information regarding gathering public input on how the City should spend its American Rescue Plan (ARP) funds. Following the presentation, Committee Member Eric Gash asked if transportation projects would be eligible for ARP funds and Manager Connet said he was unsure if they would be based on other funding sources for transportation projects. Manager Connet did encourage everyone to submit ideas on the survey and said there may be opportunities to use funds for assistance with transportation.
