CITIZEN COMMENTS.

Ronnie Martin with Lions Clubs International spoke regarding the establishment of a Lions Club in Iowa Colony. The organization works closely with high schools and supports children, particularly youth, sports programs, and children with special needs. Lions Clubs International also provides grants to communities affected by hurricanes, tornadoes, and other disasters; however, a local Lions Club must be established in the community to be eligible to receive these grants. Mr. Martin distributed applications to individuals interested in joining. A minimum of 20 members is required to officially establish the Iowa Colony Lions Club.

Zeshaun Alikhan spoke regarding the City's dark sky ordinance and expressed concerns that the City is very dark at night, making it difficult to see. He provided crash statistics for Iowa Colony from 2025 and reported that there were 17 crashes within the City.
