5. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Three (3) minutes per person; when asked to the podium, please state your name and whether you live within La Pine city limits.

La Pine Resident Walter Getty spoke to the Council regarding an animal control complaint that he had previously brought to the council's attention. He expressed concerns about his neighbors barking dogs that keep him from enjoying any time outside. There are several dogs on the neighbor's premises that create excessive noise. He reported that he attempted to contact the dog owner and was unable to reach her. Miss Repko reported that she has drafted a letter to the homeowner that will be mailed to them addressing the concern.
