Council Comments

Mayor Kantor expressed in part:

- Condemned the anti-Semitic act last week at Temple Israel and thanked Chief Zang and the other Officers for responding
- Master Plan surveys are online, and we need people to respond. They are easy and take less than five minutes to complete, and we value resident input. The topics of Housing and Economic Development, and Transportation surveys are available
- We annually submit Appropriation Requests to the State and Federal Government. We put in requests at the State level for $2 million for raising and rebuilding of the DPW Building on 12 Mile, and with the Federal Government for a water main project on Lathrup Blvd., and a complete rebuild of Sarrackwood Park, and are hoping we get these grants
- We will look into making it easier to find our Facebook and Facebook feed

Councilmember Hammond expressed in part:

- Publicly stated his condemnation of the attack on Temple Israel and thanked Chief Zang and the other Police Officers for responding
- Attended Shabbat Services on Friday night, the power went out, and the Rabbi remarked that it is a sign to remember that even in darkness, you can find light in your community.
- His personal belief is to always look for the light. There is a reason you are here on Earth, and you can personally be that light

Councilmember Sousanis expressed in part:

- There have been moments of conflict in the past, and valid points of view regarding them, yet he wishes we can figure out ways to move past it, and find ways to have good Governance and participation without those problems lingering, and not hold onto them with the exclusion of finding solutions, and he will keep in mind comments made at the previous meeting, and wants us to move forward as a Community

Councilmember Jennings expressed in part:

- The idea of canceling See, Click, Fix came from residents suggesting it
- The best way to sign up for the new Newsletter is still being worked on, but anyone who was already signed up has been transferred to the new system

15. Adjourn
