PRESENTATION/DISCUSSION WITH:

- ShoreLake Arts Executive Director Laura James
Laura, ShoreLake Arts Executive Director, gave a quick background of the 27 year old organization, previously known as the Shoreline-Lake Forest Park Art Council, now ShoreLake Arts. Noted the gallery/gift shop closed at town center and relocated at the new location is in Ridgecrest neighborhood, this space allows them to now host art classes. Last year they did a veteran gallery art show at the new office/studio, all veteran art was sold. They also started doing classes at the senior center, where 50 and older are eligible to participate. ShoreLake arts does over 40 events through the year. Laura noted the edible book fair came back with over 400 participants and 20 submissions this year. Listen Here! Is the new teen showcase co-hosting with Musicology, that will take place at Animal Acres Park. Looking to select 4 bands, all band members must be under 21 to play. Shakespear is booked for Arts in the Park August 8th at Animal Acres, this is geared towards youth and families. Battle of the Bands will take place again in LFP, August 22, and ShoreLake Arts will be at Picnic in the Park and Paws in the Park with hands on art.

- New LFP Public Works Director Nova Heaton and Superintendent Mack Douglas

Nova – background of where she has worked – committed to long term planning and connecting people to where they are and go. Started in late February – focusing on the transportation plan – connection to parks walk/bike. NPDES – focused next then parks following on her priorities. Want to layout maintenance needs and budget needs, identify gaps. Looking at maintenance cost and impacts are looked at before going in. masterplans for parks, updating and creating. Best use for parks and needs of community.

Mack – more of the day to day – weekly/daily priorities. Parks and open space background. Working with linda and mastergarden at AA. Updating operating procedures. Small crew and how to optimize and track and tell the story to advocate public works and parks.

BUSINESS

- 2026 Community Events

Cory went through events and noted next year she would like to bring an actual concert series to Animal Acres with now owning the Showmobile. This year the City is updating it and getting it in better shape. She will also look at doing a pop-up yoga, rather than a series, just not enough time to coordinate right now.

- LFP Adventure Lab/Geocaching

Matt put together a draft adventure guide packet of what something would look like for phones or to be printed to complete. Board talked about what Geocaching is an App base program, where you can put geocache boxes or things to look at. People will leave notes and different objects in boxes or puzzles. Other cities have some adventure labs. Some are city created with focus on food/business tours. Board will do more research and come back together to chat.

- Parks eNews Article for June

Matt will have Linda look at an article drafted up for the otter garden at Animal Acres Park.

- Lakefront Park Updates and History/Picture Reschedule

Amy brought up the Lakefront Hearing decisions, noted that the Examiner remanded some items and the SEPA appeal was denied. One of the remands was the dock width, not length. The decking around the house, parking, and kayak rack. City will be going back to hearing with solutions to get approval, there is no timeline or other information at this time.

Amy also had concerns that the sound transit project was going to take away funding for the lakefront, it is not a City funded project and would have no issues with conflicting or overlapping funding resources.

- Other

Park Board agreed to move the regular monthly board meetings to the first Tuesday of the month at 4:00PM.

The Board is still having a special meeting May 21st, 4:00PM to go through pictures for the history sign project.

Linda would like to get the Board together to walk through Blue Heron soon to discuss future plans for the park.

Wildlife Scavenger Hunt

The Great Blue Heron, North America's largest heron, is known for its stillness, patience, and striking hunting skills. Wading slowly through shallow water, it catches fish and other small prey with remarkable speed. In flight, its neck folds into a distinctive S-shape as it glides on broad wings. For many Indigenous peoples, the heron symbolizes wisdom, patience, and a strong connection to water and place. Its presence reflects the health and balance of wetland ecosystems.
