Updates

4. Staff Report - IT Department

Chad Bedlington said the servers are up and running and The City is fully functional. Most of the data that was initially lost has been recovered.

New Business

5. Utility Rate Review – Scope of Work Amendment

Chad Bedlington said we are still looking at this. Staff are looking into our water rate structure for evaluation. We are looking into tiers for people that conserve their water. Chad is asking for Council approval to amend the initial agreement for the additional scope of work which is approximately $6900.

Motion made by Councilmember Iversen, Seconded by Councilmember Dahl.

Voting Yea: Councilmember Huff, Councilmember Dahl, Councilmember Iversen

6. Memorandum of Understanding – Amendment to the Current IBEW Collective Bargaining Agreement

Chad Bedlington said staff is trying to prep for 2024's budget and he would like to add a Program Manager Position and have had the Policy Committee review the job description. This would be IT and urban planning. Chad said having an IT person on staff is valuable to the City. He got comparables from AWC for the salary range. Councilmember Dahl wants to see the job description and comparables. April Wright asked with the potential utility rate increases and staff not getting cost of living raises, why are we adding an additional position? She votes no for this position.

Councilmember Huff asked to see billable hours from last year for IT to compare it to having an IT person on staff. Huff also doesn't see the urgency on approving this tonight. With a brand new system we should not need as much IT support and we can contract out for bigger projects.

Gary Atkins asked if Tyson was hired to do Code Enforcement and if he was getting paid out of class for IT work. Gary said he didn't think it is fair to ask Tyson to do IT work for free when we paid the prior IT a couple thousand dollars a month.

Monica Reeves asked what the urban planner portion of the job would be doing, she asked if they would be doing grant writing. She wanted to know what the cost savings would be.

7. Council Retreat

Councilmember Huff said he'd like to plan another Council Retreat and is hoping we will have filled the open position before that. Council agreed to move the deadline for the vacant council position to September 15th so they can plan the retreat with the new councilmember. There will be a Budget Hearing on September 20th and the Retreat will be on September 30th.

8. Agenda Format Discussion

Councilmember Huff liked the layout of Aberdeen's Council Agenda. He asked if we could change ours to be more user friendly. He'd like to add financial impacts into our packets and wants to add cover sheets for Agenda items. Jenna Amsbury stated she will provide a template for review.

Old Business

9. Public Records Request Status Update

Jenna Amsbury said Lindsay is on vacation and will meet with her when she comes back on Monday to receive the status.

Public Comment - City Business Only

Gary Atkins says the name calling is getting old. We need to work together. I should be able to come here and give my comments without backlash. He wants facts, and will share some. The former Mayor spent a lot of money, the bears for example, the vehicle leases and computer leases. Gary said he thinks Tyson is doing great and should be getting paid out of class for his work. Gary spoke in regards to employees using personal computers for city business. He said the Council shouldn't be allowed to use their personal computer, they should all have one paid for by the City. Gary said we would like a City Administrator to oversee employees and to assist the Mayor.

Kyle Comer asked to put the person running unopposed for Council in the vacant position.

April Wright wanted to recap from a few meeting ago the Mayor said that the debris that was removed was not all due to the paving project, it is from years of dumping. April spoke about the utility rates and asked about public records. She also congratulated Jenna on her new position.

Monica Reeves said thank you for getting all of these items on the agenda. She thinks everyone is asking good questions and this was an engaging meeting.

Jim Wright asked about the unmarked police cars. Chief Patrick said they are allowed by RCW, but are looking at other graphics.
