08-24 Morgan Stanley\Graystone Consulting Investment Report

Morgan Stanley Brian Brice discussed the Plan's asset allocation, percentage of portfolio and differences to policy target. Investments in U.S. equities S&P 500 are down 3.3% quarter to date and up 13.1% up year to date, strongly supported by strong returns from the magnificent 7 (Apple, Microsoft, Amazon, NVIDIA, Google, Tesla, and Meta Platforms), which aer 65%-70% of S&P returns. NASDAQ investments are up 27.1% year to date. Emerging markets are up year to date 2.1% and China is down 7.2%. Cash earnings are around 5.3%. The retirement system portfolio is diversified so as to balance investments. The federal reserve target of 2% inflation has not yet been met. The risk of economic recession has increased modestly for 2023. The federal reserve is expected to discuss possible rate increases at the November meeting.

Hedge fund investment with Brevin Howard began September 27, 2023, funded from cash in the amount of $784,974. The policy targets 3%, about $731,000, to invest in hedge funds. Private Investments have not yet been funded.

As of September 30, 2023 returns were up net of fees 4.71% year to date, down 3.00% quarter to date, up 11.42% over the last 12 months, and up 5.57% over the last 3 years. The total assets as of October 6, 2023 were $24,370,007, as of September 30, 2023 were $24,584,050, and were $25,189,043 at September 11, 2023.

Motion by Trustee Roberts and supported by Trustee Bissinger to receive and file the investment report.
