Oakland County Art Survey

The COVID-19 pandemic had a devastating effect on the art community. There are things we can do as a county to not only alleviate some of the effects the pandemic had on this group, but also make Oakland County a more art-filled place to live, which benefits residents, visitors, and artists alike.

As a member of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners, I am interested in increasing arts initiatives and support for artists and arts organizations throughout the county. Our goal is not only to support artists individually, but also provide more opportunities for residents and artists through public art and economic development opportunities.

I have established a work group that is focused on figuring out how to make this concept a reality. One of the strategies we are currently investigating is the construction of an Oakland County Arts Commission. Our goal for this Commission is to be an asset to established arts councils and assist communities that don't have them in place. However, to become an asset, we need to understand what type of assistance you need -- or don't need.

We are seeking your feedback because the thoughts and ideas of those actively involved in their local art community are vital to the success of a county-wide Arts Council. Please answer these questions openly and honestly - we want to learn as much as we can about your experience, and how an Oakland County Arts Commission could be of service to your community.

Please fill out the survey by January 21, 2023. If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to reach out to Amy Aubry at aubrya@oakgov.com.

Thank you for your assistance – we greatly appreciate your feedback.

-Commissioner Janet Jackson
