OPEN DISCUSSION

Staggers: Staggers Carmen Wisser and Jennifer Hollaning were present to talk about the new executive order by the Governor. Carmen wanted to know with the new mandates with the bars closing at 10pm, where does the Town stand on this. The Mayor turned that question over to the Town Attorney. The Town Attorney stated that the County asked the State Health Officer what the mandate is and will enforce it. The Town of Mills does not have any ordinance in place on this topic. Plus the state statue on this topic is old and nothing to really support it. The Town of Mills cannot tell you what to do. Since the Town does not have anything to enforce that they will not be. Now, that does mean that the town is giving you the ok to go ahead and stay open. The town does not have any rules in place to enforce the mandate. The mandate relates to the County. The Town Attorney stated that he is just saying that the Town does not have anything in place to enforce. The Town Attorney did state that if you have any questions that you should contact the County health department or the County Attorney and see what they say. The Town Attorney did say that if the Town of Mills Police would enforce this mandate by the County it would be problematic. Jennifer stood up and asked so the town has nothing to enforce. The Town Attorney stated that is right. She then asked the Council if they could be open 24 hours on New Years Eve for a dart tournament that they would like to have. The Mayor stated that they need to write up their plan and give it to the Town Clerk.

Mayor wanted to thank Councilman Wales for his service to the Town Council. Mayor gave him an award for his service.

Staggers Request for Extension in Operating Hours on New Year Ever 2020

Jennifer Holling and Carmen Wisser were present to talk about their event that they want to have on New Year Eve. Jennifer stated that they want to be open 24 hours. They are having a dart tournament and will have DJ that will be doing the music. They know that they are allowed to be open till 2am but would like to stay open later. The Mayor asked how much later do you think you would like to be open. Jennifer stated that they think that they will be busy till 4am and most might be gone but wanted to have that option. The Town Attorney did state to Jennifer that they are aware of the mandate and that the Town will have not have anything to do with it. If the County comes and talks to them they cannot say that the town gave them permission and that they can go against the orders. The Town Attorney just wanted them to know and understand the orders from the County. Council Member McCarthy wanted to know if their bar was big enough to meet the spacing requirements of 6 feet. Jennifer stated that they have removed tables and stools for people to sit at. They will also no allow people to stand at the bar. They will require people to wear mask and keep their distance.

The Town Attorney asked if any of the other bars are asking for the same. The Town Clerk stated that no one else has asked. The Mayor asked if we should allow all to have the same request. The Town Attorney stated that they Town can extend it's Ordinance but cannot extend the health order. The Town does not want to be in the position that we are ignoring the County's orders. So the Town Attorney stated to the Council that we should treat each request as a different request. As each bar owner comes forward the Town Clerk will let the Council know and we will take up each on separate.

Mayor asked for a motion to approve Resolution 2020-55, for Staggers to be open past 2am on New Year Eve.

Council Member Ives made the motion to approve Resolution 2020-55. Seconded by Council Member McCarthy. Voting Yea: Mayor Coleman, Council Member Ives, Council Member Hollander, and Nay for Council Member McCarthy
