As far as new swag, the budget will have to be revisited in the new fiscal year.

MISCELLANEOUS COMMENTS

Wildcare Babyshower - April 26th - noon-5pm

All the animal welfare organizations in the state came together to form the Oklahoma Animal Coalition where they ranked all the problems within the state and voted on the top issues. One of the top issues voted on will be a resolution read in both the senate and the house declaring April 15th thru the end of May as Lights Out for Migratory Birds.

EarthDay will be promoted on Living Oklahoma, channel 25, this year.

One of the hurdles they run into in regards to the Mayors Climate Protection Agreement is funding for some of the projects they were wanting to implement. All four Rotary Clubs of Norman got together and applied for a district grant to put some recycle bins in each park. After further discussion, there will be more hurdles to jump through to get this fully implemented but is very hopeful.

OU Waterday, can be viewed on YouTube.

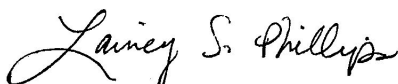

Water on Tap event at the Standard, this is where they go to the local Brewery's to discuss water.
