SUPPLEMENTAL SHEET

Community Action Lab Content Discussion: Discussion with the Strong Towns AD HOC Committee regarding the topics shared through the Norman Community Action Lab, with special focus given to how Norman utilizes sales tax to fund local projects. This is the third of three public workshop presentations with the Community Action Lab program. This event is an opportunity to discuss issues that are important to the Norman Community with neighbors.

The public is encouraged to learn more about the Norman Community Action Lab, access additional information, and participate in this conversation at www.strongtowns.org/norman.

The Norman Community Action Lab materials have been curated by Strong Towns specifically for the city of Norman and have been used to inform the Committee discussions. The Strong Towns AD HOC Committee will review the following content with Strong Towns:

- Complex vs. Complicated
- Citizen as Developer
- Municipal Government as the Highest Form of Collaboration
- Accessory Dwelling Units

Additional information on these topics is available for the public to participate in this conversation at www.strongtowns.org/norman.
