Discussions

1. Discussion with Mallory Hanson, Fayette County Economic Development

Mallory Hanson provided information on the new Fayette County Economic Development organization. Hanson discussed that the new group would meet monthly with a portion of the overall board. Hanson said the group is in its early stages but plans to make great strides this year. Hanson said that Oelwein should be a member and that they are an important part of Fayette County. Hanson hoped the new group would help mend the tension between north Fayette and south Fayette. Hanson said that membership fees would be based on population. Mulfinger informed council that the city has funds available for this membership and that $6,400 would be an acceptable payment for being on the board. Mulfinger informed Hanson that once council passed the budget, he could let her know about their decision.

Adjournment
