Discussions

1. Food Truck Discussion.

The city council discussed changing the fees, and distance requirements for food trucks. Mulfinger stated some businesses downtown are interested in having a food truck parked out front for special events. Mulfinger said staff must track down food trucks right now and make sure they signed up for a permit. The permits are online and easily accessible to any food truck owner.

The city council advised to update the ordinance and have it ready for the next city council meeting.
