1. Consideration of a Hotel/Motel Funding Application from the Williams Center for the Arts in the amount of $1,500.00

Gene Fueling and Doug McFarland joined the committee to discuss financials.

McFarland presented the line up for the 2021 year and talked about the struggles and the unknown.

Fueling went into the finance and discussed the need for the city funding.

Fisk questioned who owned the center.

Fueling said the school owns the building and leases the spaces through a 28E.

Seeders felt that the center provided ample details to show the need for the funding.

Cantrell motioned to recommend the funding amount to council, and Seeders seconded. All voted I
