V. REPORT ON RECENT EVENTS

A. Trunk or Treat - October 29, 2021

Kimberly reported on Trunk or Treat – stated that there were less cars this year, but it went well. We have a large box of candy left in bags, would love ideas to donate.

Committee suggested to donate to Military Moms & Wives - Jeremy offered to take it.

VI. UPCOMING EVENTS

A. Fall Sweep - November 13, 2021

Kimberly reported on the event. Requested the committee meet at the garden at 8:30-8:45am.

Stated she has two roll-offs coming - one at city hall and one at the garden.

Stated they will pick up trash along FM 2004. She stated she needs help with a headcount. Kimberly would like to send a small group to the monument sign, to clean up and touch up paint the sign and spread wildflower seed.

B. Christmas in the Park

Brittany Figaro recommends we just have Santa drive around town, since we generally have low turnout.

Discussion held on possible events to hold for the holiday.

Committee agreed to skip Christmas in the park and just host the decorating contest.

VII. YARD OF THE MONTH

Kimberly reported that December will kick off for best decorated yard. She has created the event online.

Discussion held on judging. Jeremy requested we notify applicants of when judging will be held.

Discussion held on possibly publishing addresses to share for public who would like to travel around and look at lights.

VIII. DISCUSSION AND ACTION ITEMS

A. Discussion and possible action regarding pet waste stations at pocket parks.

Brittany stated she looked on amazon for basic waste stations - they all run about $240 - $260. She stated it may be something that we reach out to resident to see where these would be most beneficial.

Kimberly stated she will put a poll online to see what residents think.

Discussion held on whether or not people will use.

B. Discussion and possible action regarding flag placement for Veterans Day.

Requests assistance in putting flags up, November 9, 2021.
