ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION AND ACTION

4. Farmers Market Updates
Amber and Amy were present to discuss the farmers market and 4th of July.
5. 4th of July Celebration Recap (Maggie/Michele)
Casper gave a 4th of July Celebration update. It was estimated that 2,500 people attended. 386 halves of chicken were sold. 50/50 raffle made $410 and the t-shirts made $240. The Commission discussed ideas and improvements for next year.
6. Baseball Field Update (Maggie/Michele)

Casper and Johnson gave an update on the adult baseball field. Jason Nies donated his time to look at the baseball field lights and determined parts of the light fixtures needs to be replaced. Casper mentioned that the Village had applied for the DNR Stewardship Grant in May, which could help pay for the light fixtures.

7. Youth and Home Talent Baseball Updates (Maggie/Michele)

Johnson gave an update on tee ball. Rock Reeson donated the tee ball t-shirts and hats for the players.

8. Dog Park Update

Johnson presented options for the dog waste stations and signage at the dog park. Cullen and Johnson will work together to figure out station placements and signage. DRH is still scheduled to finish at the end of August.

9. Tree Planting Plan (Maggie)

Johnson presented the tree plan revisions. Cullen will work with Public Works Director, Jeff Brindley, to come up with a plan for planting and watering.

10. Community Movie (Maggie)

Johnson gave an update on the community movies. The next community movie date is still to be determined due to the construction at the community center.

11. Back to School Party (Maggie)

Johnson gave an update on the Back to School Party. The party is schedule for September 10th, but could be rescheduled to the construction at the community center.

12. Halloween Planning

The Commission discussed Halloween planning. Garner and Barnard will discuss ideas for the next meeting on August 2nd.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion made by Venden, Seconded by Garner to adjourn at 8:33pm.
