AGENDA ITEMS

1. Consideration and Approval of the Building Inspector Agreement with Monticello City under the Utah Code Annotated 11-13-202.5(3). Mitch Maughan, County Attorney

Time Stamp (audio & video)

Mitch Maughan, County Attorney, presented the Building Inspector Agreement with Monticello City for the commission to review and approve. Mitch asked the commission if they wanted to contract with a building inspector, or create an interlocal agreement with Monticello

City to share the services. UCIP is concerned with the current proposed interlocal agreement. There are several key points the county and city need to be aware of and to address. Kaden Kulow, Monticello City Manager, and Megan Gallegos, Assistant City Manager, added additional insights to the discussion. Monticello has attempted to find an licensed inspector, but did not receive a single application. The only available licensed building inspector in San Juan County is employed by the county, hence, they need a service agreement contract with the county. The county agreed to continue providing services until the new agreement is in place.

2. Consideration and Approval of a Interlocal Agreement with Monticello City for Justice Court Services. Mack McDonald, Chief Administrative Officer

Time Stamp (audio & video)

Mitch Maughan, County Attorney, presented the Interlocal Agreement with Monticello City for Justice Court Services for the commission to review and discuss. Currently, Monticello has a contract with Mitch for Justice Court duties, Jens Nielson has judge duties in the outside portion of the county. Monticello City wants to contract with the San Juan County Justice Court. The agreement will increase expenses for the attorney's office. Mitch is contracted with the city for $125 per hour, for twelve hours a month. The county will receive the revenue generated by the court.
