

ARTS COMMISSION MINUTES

REGULAR HYBRID MEETING

March 11, 2024

This meeting was conducted in person and remotely using teleconferencing technology provided by Zoom.

CALL TO ORDER & ROLL CALL: Chair Donna Cronk called meeting order at 5:33pm

PRESENT: Donna Cronk, Sarah Elley, Nicole Hansen, YiJu Miller, and Steve Pennington

CITY: Nicole Wiebe, Community Liaison

PUBLIC COMMENTS: None

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

MOTION by Commissioner Pennington; SECONDED by Commissioner Cronk to approve the minutes of February 12, 2024, with one correction, adding August 17, 2024, as the Snoqualmie Days date. Motion passed unanimously.

DISCUSSION

- Annette Roth, Creative District WA presented the program. Commissioners asked questioned. The City and community stakeholders are in the gathering stage.
- Introduction of new commissioner Sarah Elley.
- Elect New Chair: Steve Pennington nominated himself, Donna Cronk seconded, motion passed unanimously.
- Red, White, Boom Chalk Activity. Commissioners discussed the opportunity and opted to not pursue. They will consider supporting the ROA morning event by providing a Chalk the Block station. This will require a commissioner to volunteer.
- 2023 Budget review and 2024 Budget Planning.
 - Commissioner Miller would like to consider the Arts Commission coordinating art classes at the Snoqualmie Library, she will gather more information and costs.
- Art Off The Rails: Commissioner Pennington attended a recent meeting and will serve as the Arts Commission liaison to the planning committee. Marketing has commenced.
- Building Mural Program: Nicole Wiebe is working with City Attorney. The building owner has the agreement, is under review. Requests for Proposals from artists is the next step in the process.

NEW BUSINESS

- Plein Air Paint Out: Commissioners Cronk and Hansen are leads on Plein Air, scheduled for July 20, 2024. The theme is "Bridges of Snoqualmie" the Snoqualmie River Bridge and Meadowbrook Bridge. Check-in booth will be located in Downtown Historic Snoqualmie, along the boardwalk. Marketing has commenced.
- Social Media: Commissioner Pennington has reestablished a Facebook page for the Arts Commission.
- Commissioners need to work out city email.
- Agenda deadlines, email Steve Pennington by Wednesday, the first week of the month.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 7:00pm

Minutes taken by Nicole Wiebe, Community Liaison