"Government finance is a unique discipline and differs substantially from private sector finance, especially when it comes to government's focus on services versus private enterprise's focus on profit. When it comes to city finance, budgeting is a team sport – not an individual event – and your city budget is one of the most important documents you'll work on this year. Our presenters discuss your responsibilities as an elected official in exercising fiduciary accountability as you tackle the key elements of city finance."

There are no additional materials with this training.
