Motion – made by Malaika Wells to approve minutes, seconded by Renee Cail

Motion passed unanimously

V. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Mrs. Olson 6547 Chuck Road LLC; situation about Jonathan Park; fighting against Industrial Park for over 2 years; reason Mr. Park was removed and residents should be a part of what is done with their funds; conflict of interest because Mr. Park was involved with a lot of projects in the community; need policing because they do not answer the phone; example is when she was shot and police never came; Renee Cail advised her of our interest as CID Committee; Malaika Wells advised her on the process of CID; Mrs. Olson provided proof (per paperwork) of the issues she has been bringing to our committee to everyone; Christian advised that she should call him later about the situation. Mrs. Olson passed out personal cards to the committee.

VI. NEW BUSINESS – For Discussion

A. New Economic Development Director – Introduction by Christian Green

Christian Green was given the opportunity to introduce himself

B. Freight Cluster Plan Study

C. Meeting scheduling conflicts with year-end holiday season

Next meeting scheduled for Thanksgiving Eve. Getting with City Clerk Office to reschedule meeting to Wednesday 16th of November.

VII. OLD BUSINESS

1. Follow-up on the Project-specific cooperation agreements that were forwarded to city staff from the city attorney's office last October
2. Discussed the Char Hill Landscaping Project and request about insurance and City Engineer, Mr. Hari Karikaran, had denied deployment of Flock cameras on the city right of way along Panola Road
3. Bicycle, Path, Trail Study - Gresham, Smith

Discussed bicycle paths and the need for them to be restored on both sides of road and the need for a path out to the quarry. Continuing to take public comment but for a very short time.

VIII. COMMITTEE MEMBER COMMENTS

1. Sarah Simpson spoke about different ways Stone Crest could work on beautification especially on the back streets that don't get as much attention; Also adding focus on district committees and not just 1 full time Stonecrest Committee. Christopher Sanders committed on her concern. Renee Cail spoke on the road conditions also.
2. Malaika Wells commented on what happened to recommendations in the minutes: April 22, 2023 that they voted on counsel to employ a consultant to evaluate the creation of a CID in the City of Stonecrest.
 - b. Moving to the room their in, there are a lot less microphones. When they were meeting in the council chambers, everyone had a microphone. And the meetings now are not being live streamed like before. Greg White advised he did not know that the meetings were not live streamed and Christopher Green said he would look into the streaming portion and answer next meeting.

3. Christopher Sanders asked about forming the CID and Greg Wright responded to his question. All members made comments about forming the CID.

IX. ADJOURNMENT

Motion – made by Christopher Sanders to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Renee Cail.

Motion passed unanimously

As approved on the 26st day of October, 2023.
