- b. Update on Stonecrest Film and Entertainment Commissioners

Chair Rob Turner advised that the commission has yet to appoint someone for District 4.

Chair Turner will reach out to District 4 Councilmember George Turner for a nominee. Joe Harrington has been added for District 5.

Lance Randall advised Victoria Turner and Verda Watson that he would fill in their information on the sign-in sheet and confirmed their contact information.

- c. Update on the Stonecrest Film and Entertainment Advisory Board

Chair Rob Turner confirmed additional Advisory Board members. He is planning to have a meeting with members and advisory members at either the June, July, or August meeting.

- d. Presentation of Event Committee

Chet Brewster is attempting to get the Amazing Story Foundation to Stonecrest and Cassandra Wilson has been in communication with one of their members, working out the details of having the event. Chair Turner also mentioned the How Big is your Dream Foundation that the committee is also attempting to schedule.

Director Randall is still working with the Communication Director on a logo for the Commission. He has also made some updates to the page listed on the city's website. Director Randall will also be meeting with the Parks & Recreation Department on next week, to discuss and plan "Screen on the Green" which is scheduled for September.

It was stated there will be a discussion, soon, about the 2027 budget, but date has not been determined.

Cassandra Wilson has sent a link to “Rockstar” to become a vendor for Stonecrest, but someone will need to contact him to finish the process. Mrs. Wilson will email Director Randall the contact’s name, and he will follow up on the application. Mrs. Wilson also had a phone call scheduled with “Nina” but would like to first confirm the room is available for their program. She will provide a date and time, and Director Randall will check and confirm whether the room has been booked for the event.

Cassandra Wilson expressed concerns about getting the public to register for events, stating the main form of advertisement is social media, so the committee would need to make sure that they are advertised on all of Stonecrest’s social media outlets. Mrs. Wilson also inquired about having events at the old Sam’s building parking lot and Director Randall advised that the building is in the process of being sold, in which the buyers are planning on bringing approximately 120 jobs to Stonecrest.

Director Randall confirmed that New Black Wallstreet has closed and Stonecrest is not aware of future plans at this time. It was also confirmed that that abandoned school is property of the Allen Property Compound and was zoned as a R100; which is single family residential status. In addition, in regard to the movie theater at The Mall of Stonecrest. Director Randall stated the mall is getting ready to do a complete renovation inside and out.

Director Randall commented that Stonecrest is only 8 years old and cannot compare with cities that have been established for over 100 years.
