EXECUTIVE SESSION

PRESENTATIONS

6. During the November 24, 2020, regular meeting, Mr. Chris Coulombe addressed the Council seeking relief from the excess water charges due to a leak in his household plumbing. C/T Millard worked up an offer of settlement, but Mr. Coulombe did not wish to accept that offer, but instead offered to pay more than what C/T Millard offered. While this seemed odd, Mr. Coulombe appeared before Council and Council accepted the the $1000 in satisfaction of the excess usage amount.

Now Mr. Coulombe contends that we did not understand what he was really asking. Despite the extensive discussion of the excess usage, he maintains he was really seeking complete relief from both the excess usage and any amounts in arrears; in short, he asks the Council forgive any amount due and owing up to the date of the November billing period.

At the time Mr. Coulombe tendered the $1000.00 payment, his bill totaled $2,211.92. The payment brought that balance down to $1,211.92 and would require the Council to authorize an additional credit of $1211.92 to bring the balance to zero as of the date of the November billing period.
