1. Interim Police Chief John Hutchings Presentation

From The Office of Interim Police Chief John Hutchings

Tenino PD will generally physically respond to the following call types:

Suicidal subjects (no crime)

If the subject is alone in a residence units should not physically respond but attempt to make phone contact.

Mental Health / DCR detainer calls

Fire Department requests for combative/disorderly medical patients.

The above call will require a response but an assessment by the officer will occur to determine scope of LE involvement.

Domestic Violence call – Statutory obligation for response and investigation.

DV NCO violations – Statutory obligation for response and investigation.

Family Law court order returning children from an uncooperative custodial parent. (Very high liability: Supervisor will need to monitor.)

*** Note from the city/county attorneys:

The above calls are situational and require a law enforcement response to assess the situation and either engage or refer to other services.

Tenino PD generally will not physically respond to the below calls:

Noise complaints

Civil complaints

Nuisance crimes (loitering, public drunkenness...etc.)

Offences such as Minor in Possession of Tobacco, smoking MJ in public, TMC parks violations, etc. (penalty = civil infraction.)

All general medical calls, including overdoses.

Welfare checks.

Barking pets and pets left in vehicles (non-life threatening).

Calls involving relatively minor crimes where the victim does not wish criminal prosecution. (TCOMM – info only to officer on duty)

Trespassing

Shoplifting / Misdemeanor Theft

Misdemeanor Malicious Mischief

PD response to above calls may be telephonic (phone detail to officer) if citizen requests officer contact.

The New Policing Paradigm

We all swore an oath to support, uphold, and enforce the laws of Washington.

- Our path forward is to focus on serious crime and violent offenders.
- We will continue our long tradition of community engagement and caretaking.
- We will find new ways to address low-level, nuisance crime.
- We will find ways to re-assign non-critical tasks to address serious crime, violent offenders and to have sufficient personnel to engage in de-escalation.
- We will accept the new paradigm and strive not to send officers as the primary first responder to civil, medical, social, or fire calls.
- We will look at establishing Crisis Response Teams and non-patrol units to provide primary social and mental health outreach.
