Special Announcement Regarding April 13, 2020 City Council Meeting

The Tualatin City Council meeting scheduled for Monday, April 13 will proceed at this time with several modifications:

- The agenda has been shortened; and
- The City Council will participate in the meeting remotely.

To the extent possible, the public is encouraged to watch the meeting live on local cable channel 28, or on the City's website.

For those wishing to provide comment during the meeting, there is one opportunity on the agenda: Public Comment. Written statements may be sent in advance of the meeting to Deputy City Recorder Nicole Morris up until 4:30 pm on Monday, April 13. These statements will be included in the official meeting record, but not read during the meeting.

For those who would prefer to make verbal comment, there are two ways to do so. As always, public comment is limited to three minutes per person.

1. Zoom Teleconference. You will be muted and your video will be disabled upon entering the call. Further instructions on how to provide comment will be provided during the meeting itself.

Phone: +1 669 900 6833

Meeting ID: 702 420 226

Link: <https://zoom.us/j/702420226>

2. Attend in person at the Juanita Pohl Center. Instead of speaking at the Council Dias, you will be able to address the Council in real-time through a microphone that will be cleaned between each speaker. Social distancing measures will be implemented to maintain distance between those attending in person. City staff will be available on-site to answer any questions.

Questions? Please contact Assistant to the City Manager Megan George.
