What is the Sustainable City Year Program?

Through year-long partnerships, SCYP helps communities solve today's problems while laying the groundwork for a sustainable future – all while helping students prepare for the workforce through applied learning.

Next Steps for Individual Classes

Current Partnership: City of Tualatin

The City of Tualatin has been selected by the University of Oregon's Sustainable City Year Program (SCYP) partnership for the 2025-26 academic year. SCYP will match resources from existing university courses to high priority projects recognized by the City Council and the Tualatin community, with a particular focus on supporting downtown revitalization efforts.

Established in 2009, SCYP is now in its 16th year of partnerships with Oregon communities. SCYP partnerships connect University of Oregon students with local communities to implement real change drawing directly from community-identified issues.

This community partnership is made possible in part due to support from U.S. Senators Ron Wyden and Jeff Merkley, as well as former Congressman Peter DeFazio, who secured federal funding for SCYP through Congressionally Directed Spending.
