3. Acceptance of a budgeted $27,773.24 transfer to the Town of Tyrone Downtown Development Authority for Economic Development functions from the Town of Tyrone.
- Phillip Trocquet, Community Development

Mr. Trocquet shared that the Town budgeted and approved $27,773.24 in funds to transfer to the DDA. The funds were typically allocated to the Fayette County Development Authority (FCDA), which was financially autonomous and no longer needed municipal contributions. Therefore, the Town's contributions would be reassigned to the DDA for annual economic development endeavors. Treasurer McDuffie asked how the transfer amount was calculated. Mr. Trocquet explained that the yearly contributions to the FCDA were based on the Town's population, along with each Fayette County municipality contributing a designated percentage. Staff recommended acceptance of the $27,773.24 transfer to the DDA.
