CASES

Case No. 23-4

Kelly Ward

355 E. 330th St.

1165.07(c)

1 - 46' to extend fence from side of house.

2 - 2' height for a fence.

Kelly Ward appeared before the board.

The secretary sent out neighbor notification forms.

Mr. Koudela asked Ms. Ward to explain her variance request. Ms. Ward stated that she is on the corner of Parkland and E. 330th St. and at the dead-end between Willowick and Eastlake. She stated many people cut through her yard. She has a problem with trash and has used needles thrown in her yard. She has an expensive dog and is afraid to let the dog out in case the dog gets stolen. She stated that it is herself, her 9 year old daughter, and her mother living in the home, and is concerned about safety as she is a nurse and works long hours.

Mr. Yarletts asked if the fence would be 2' past the side door and to the sidewalk. Ms. Ward stated it will be 11' back from the sidewalk. Mr. Yarletts asked what type of fence and if it will tie into the back fence. Ms. Ward said it will be board on board and will tie into the back chain link fence belonging to the neighbor in Eastlake.

There will be no visibility issues backing out of the driveway. Ms. Ward stated it is a circular driveway one section out to Parkland and the other section out to E. 330th St.

Motion made by BZA Member Clarke, Seconded by BZA Member Yarletts to grant a variance of 46' to extend a fence from the side of the house in the application of Section 1165.07(c) of the Codified Ordinances of the City of Willowick at 355 E. 330 St.. Discussion: None. Voting Yea: Chairman Koudela, BZA Member Yarletts, BZA Member Clarke. Motion carried.
