Staff Comments

City Engineer Porter addressed Council stating this item is for a contract with a design engineer to develop a comprehensive plan to address critical drainage problems, as well as to provide an effective tool to manage future development in specified areas of town. The goal of this project is to provide an evaluation of existing drainage conditions throughout the area identified by developing an accurate and current understanding of the City's drainage infrastructure and potential solutions to both existing and future issues. The project includes an inventory of existing systems, identifying problem areas, and generating a list of future Capital Improvement Projects (including costs outlined to address system deficiencies).

Council Comments

Mayor Porter asked where the funding for this item was coming from. City Engineer Porter clarified that the funding was coming from the Drainage excess fund balance and not from the 2021 Bond passed for the Historic District.

Council Comments

Council questions and feedback included: would like to keep the front of the property north of Rita Smith Elementary commercial and not all low-density residential, questioned the property located between The District and the mobile home park off of Alanis currently assigned industrial in which there is current business interest in and proposing to change it to regional commercial on the new plan, asked what the vision CPAC had for the property located along FM 544 that is being proposed as Mixed-Use and Special Planning Areas, asked what the vision CPAC had for property near Avalon Park being proposed as Mixed-Use and Special Planning Areas, expressed concerns with the property located near Avalon Park being designated as low-density residential and mentioned the area being designated as Park and Open Space, questioned if input sought from North Texas Municipal Water District on their property that is designated as Parks and Open Space, designated Mixed-Use and Special Planning Areas near Avalon Park is appropriate, this Plan could serve as an aspiration to the future of the City, thanked CPAC members for the time they have put into this, questioned the definition of medium-density, expressed concerns with the medium-density designations and stated areas that surround current single-family homes should be designated as low-density residential, asked what CPAC's vision of the property located across the street from Dodd Park, the proposed Plan looks nice, property at intersection near Dodd Park keep as medium density as it is broadly defined as the will of the community is some commercial in that location, expressed concerns with the residential future land use categories, the proposed land use plan is defining sizes in which the low-density does not meet the current medium density zoning standard of the City, recommends that lot sizes not be stated in the Plan, possibly include a separate designation for townhomes, expressed concerns with the affordable housing goal as the City has no control on the prices of homes, stated the city has no way to enforce it, and questioned why it is rated as the top third goal, questioned the sample size for the survey from residents, asked why there is a number beside the goals if they are not ranked by importance, expressed concerns with putting the City in a litigious situation if items are placed in the Plan but cannot be enforced, it is important to look at the map from the previous Plan and compare it with the proposed Plan, the current Plan has broader colors and sections and the new proposed Plan limits medium-density housing and areas of town where townhomes can be built, expressed concerns if the City dramatically changes medium-density it will limit the type of housing stock that would allow someone to become a homeowner, disagree that there is nothing the City can do regarding affordable housing, stated having affordable housing as a goal does not open the City up to litigation as this document is not binding and is supposed to be instructive based on comments given by the community and the CPAC, the map is reasonable as proposed, stated that townhomes are not being sold as affordable in Wylie, and size does not equal affordability, and there are two ways to get affordable housing one being through a PD and the other by designating an area that allows for federal HUD money to be used to subsidize housing.

Committee Comments

Committee comments and feedback included: was not aware of the low and medium density definitions in the Plan and do not support the proposed definitions, but do support the current definitions in place, the new Plan should be clear that the designations are the intent for future new development, did not place the goals in order based on importance and they were ranked based on the number of times that it was placed on a sticky note during meetings, the City does not have control of affordable housing, and propose that CPAC go line by line and may need to extend the timeline for completion.

Haskins and Harrison answered questions and provided feedback to Council. Haskins stated that CPAC will take the comments and feedback from Council and will have another meeting to make changes to the proposed plan.

The Council consensus was to send the Plan back to CPAC to evaluate the comments made by Council.

Questions and comments from Council included: when will guaranteed construction costs be locked in, look at closing McMillen during construction, concerns with an increase in cost on a standard that was updated in 2015 but was taken to the voters in 2021 not taking the update into account, do not want to go back to the citizens for additional funding, and appreciate staff being transparent and upfront.
