WS1. Discuss development options on the property currently owned by Sanden International.

Community Services Director Haskins addressed the Council, stating Sanden International is looking to divest itself of some of its unneeded land, located between FM 544 and Highway 78, and asked for Council direction on preferred uses. Mr. Daniel Klyce, Facility Manager at Sanden International, gave a presentation and answered questions from the Council.

Council discussion included that Lots 1 and 2 be commercial, with no fast food or gas station, and Lots 3, 4, and 5 be warehouse, distribution center, or manufacturing uses.

WS2. Discuss and provide direction on establishing a Sister City with the City of Mitrovica North, Kosovo.

City Manager Parker and Mayor Pro Tem Mulliqi presented an opportunity to establish a sister city relationship with the City of Mitrovica North, Kosovo. Mayor Pro Tem Mulliqi answered questions from the City Council.

Council discussion included the desired level of engagement with the City of Mitrovica North, including the facilitation of the exchange of ideas and collaboration between elected officials, staff, and community representatives. Council members expressed interest in understanding what a sister city relationship would entail in terms of commitments and responsibilities.

The Council directed staff to draft a proclamation to formally establish the sister city relationship and bring it back for Council consideration at a future meeting. The Council also noted that any additional expectations or obligations related to the relationship would be brought back for consideration before implementation.
